REBELLION DISPATCHES. Dress Association Telegram. War Office, 21st July, 1916. The following despatches have been received by the Secretary of State for War from the Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, Home Forces:-

(1) On the morning of the 24th ult., the 5th Division at St Albans was at once ordered to proceed to Ireland, and arrangements were put in train for their transport. After receiving the necessary orders for the movement of two brigades to commence as soon as their transport could be arranged. I am aware that in doing so I was being beyond the power which the Contract had to me, but I considered the situation to be so critical that it was necessary to act at once without reference to the Army Council.

(2) On the morning of the 25th, I was informed of the outbreak by wire on the afternoon of the 24th ult., and the 5th Division at St Albans was at once ordered to proceed to Ireland, and arrangements were put in train for their transport.
