Reported Views of Lord French on the Future of Ireland. "ORDER MUST BE RESTORED"

French Journalist's Version of an Amazing Interview. In a Reuter's message from Paris yesterday Lord French is reported as having made a prophecy to a representative in Dublin of the Paris "Journal" that the Government would subdue the agitators in Ireland, that a period of tranquility would follow, and then once again trouble would break out.

"I SHALL NOT FAIL" "AMAZINGLY INDISCREET"

No Responsibility for Settling the Problem. English Journal Surprised by the Viceroy's Opinions. Referring to the interview, the "Western Gazette" writes: "Lord French says: 'It is to be hoped that he has been misreported, for if not he has been amazingly indiscreet. For Lord French is made to brush aside a statement of Irish grievances by some generous measure such as Home Rule, as Mr. Macpherson's task. His own business is the suppression of disorder.'"

Chief Secretary's Task. "That is Mr. Macpherson's task," replied the Viceroy, who did not conceal his regret that Mr. Lloyd George's latest scheme had not found sufficient supporters.

KNOCKLONO CHARGE. Evidence of the Affray in the Train

THREE TELEGRAMS. Mr. Geo. Mellory, R.M., at William street Barracks, Limerick, yesterday took depositions in the Knocklono murder charge. The six prisoners are—Ed. Foley, Patk. Mahony, M. Murphy, M. Shanahan, Thomas Shinnah, and M. O'Connell.

Mr. B. J. Kearney deposed that he was a first-class clerk in the Accountant's Office, G.P.O., Dublin, and in charge of the telegraph and telephone branch. All telegrams received at the Dublin G.P.O. are sent by him by train to various branches. He produced three telegrams received on Thursday, May 15, 1919, from Thurles and the third from Knocklono. Telegram No. 1, (dated by Thurles, on May 15 at 1.40 p.m.) read as follows: "To Shanahan, G.P.O., Knocklono; Greyhound in Thurles still," signed, M. O'Connell. At the back of this telegram was written "M. O'Connell, 21 Main street, Thurles."

Mr. J. J. Keane deposed he was the station-master at Thurles on May 15th last, and produced the book recording the arrival of all passenger trains to Thurles on May 15. The train from Dublin that day arrived at 12.7 p.m. The 5.30 train ex-Kingbridge arrived at 6.44, and left Thurles station at 6.50. No dog arrived at Thurles that day so far as he was aware. If a dog had arrived there would be no record or ticket for a dog.

SHOCKING OUTRAGE IN KERRY. Farmer's Ears Cut Off by Masked Raiders

WIFE'S PITEOUS APPEAL. A wave of excitement and indignation has been caused in the Killarney (Co. Kerry) district by the news of a dastardly outrage committed in the early hours of Thursday at a place about six miles from Killarney.

Mrs. Mangau, who interfered in her husband's defence, was also ill-treated and had position or her hair cut off. The raiders again directed their attention to Mr. Mangau, whose ears were cut off. Medical aid was summoned, and the injured man remains in a very weak condition. A priest was also quickly on the scene.

Mr. Mangau, who was looking on, made a piteous appeal on behalf of his husband, but this was unavailing. Shortly after a shaver was procured, and the unfortunate man's ears were severed. The injured man lay on the ground and the raiders soon after disappeared.

TRADE DISPUTES. Belfast Commercial Man and "Wild Men in Labour"

At the quarterly meeting of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, held at the Cornhill Rooms, London, a special resolution moved by Sir Wm. Fry (Dublin), calling upon the Government to bring in a Bill to give limited companies votes at Local Government elections in view of the fact that, owing to the large number of businesses which were now controlled, they were generally controlled by foreign interests.
