They are as are be-87 Fathers Heijimilonia do Maye ach, might Line Probilduded. ut for men is to be riy on the r charches holding ma-cut of the ta mosting rman, prok-h. Ougha Chairman or saled percaber of the 500-13 3a. a "Daily ly 690,660 s satisficially era. There hia sebenje nat forward s: An Ath-Commuchs. capital of ricantisation instable tion province to dy soundied The enon of a direct comtean whole-ilway Farm-

m February Mis Was div assed calling r the present aure a faiser ended as be 100 district. the County report order, инису ыржий stement that iams, to those nera in rela county and notice, an rmvi a Press not mean a as or any order was cepting down different regpother. Ar giving in sers will have of Maynooth ina, twelve ona America, Rev. Fr. ctive worker agewell core gan Park on property in inated on the sita Foynes, stating lifty es, situated kirted by the ns. have also Fall. ntractor, must t at Curranhe and M^{c} examining for repairs McNally fell saffine. extraordinary samings outs of as falling be ટ માતું લોકમાટ hang on, bu Luckily his and he manand front.

ave on foot a ario of land This is the s in summer nge ar Sending would be a City. The nance natarec-Cing should entarity with should they the grazing ut, of enurse The Urbar on the matits support oversary, the over for the 'ammittee be acturers' ingarentes and batter added ket of eiggsweket. we are told, osymbolis, 1600 on with the charge on Ad an increase brands of a eturers licevé toy of phass gate at inby weight. I for at the oy the monuest this de to draw the handace.

noch's. or the Irish mentionalities around aguage 20,000-, at a pro-·· Irish ama and pre− offer very g a manure vers three is a private creations gord i≼ phosphate e than 3,000 steam and egrically to The subant are amtish Islandsthat there There is of railway ibation, and guarantees nto shape to tht. These restigation. expert admestion comnothing will n as for as rom the mive their own n is—will it treland?"

PRESH DEBATE ON CO. HOSPITAL ASSESSMENT.

POSITION OF INFIRMARY. PREPARATIONS FOR PROVIDING RESIDENCE FOR TURLOUGH-

MORE M.O. COST OF THE NEW HOUSE. No Sugar For the Poor.

The implatity of the Master to procure sugar for the poor inmates in the workhappe was again referred to at the meeting of the Galacy Guardians on Wednesday It is alleged that the merchants who should do so have refused to supply the needed quantity, and the Food Controller has Lock winter to regarding the matter. Mr. P. Curran, Chairman, presided at the meeting, and the following members were pleasin attendance: Messes, J. Griffin M. J. Cooke, M. Redington, N. Lydon, J. I Wal-h. T. Ruane, Co.C.; D. Moloney, J. O'Brien, W. Lardner, John McDonogh, ir; 4 MeGrath, T. Maddon, W. Murphy. in connection with the repairs needed

163 hasy lately. ey may meny.
A demand for a weekly wage of £4 for the tailor in the workhouse was made by the Secretary of the Tailors' and Tailoresets' Union in Galway (Mr P. Keville) .--The Clerk said the man's wage was £2 la. 6d. per usek - it was decided to offer what the labourers are getting, £2 5s, 6d.

a week. Mr. P. McLoughlin, contractor, was allofed £2 10s, for putting slates on the workhouse which were slown down by the Notices of the eviction of Wilfred Theo Revett Carnac and his wife, by the Right Hon. Mary Ethel Lady Wallscourt, from Ardfry House and demesne, Orgamore, and of John Keane (jr.), by Patrick Mergan, from a house in College-road, Galway, were received.

A demand was received from the Co. A demand was received from the Co. the barrack I fitted this piece of paper into Hospital for payment of £500, built of the the piece found with the bono. It fitted ensuing year's assessment. Chairman: exactly, and the letters corresponded. It this a dear county hospital .- Mr. Cooke: | was the "Freeman's Journal" of February What do you suggest doing?-Mr. Cooke: That we adhere to last year's estimate. Hospital, wherever it is going to. Mr. Ruano: There is a waste there unions, solid representatives there, and they are supposed to look after the hospital. If they do not you can change them the next time. Consider it well, the next time.-Mr. Ruane: They mabe doing their best .- Chairman; They resid not very well help the present state of affairs the way things were going. I know it is a shame the way things got ish thing to do .- Mr. Cooke; I do not kmx-there is so much expense.

long time.—Mr. Redington:Sure you have

Mr. Ruane: I always see people coming miere at the eleventh hour talking about be semale if it is high, but during the indre mouths that have gone before when applications for increases are made by every Jack-in-office those are the gentlenot who agree to them .- Mr. Lydon: Quite right.-Mr. Cooke: We gave intreases here as well as in the County Hospital, and yet our estimate is not to be considered at all with theirs, and we have more efficials,-Chairman: We manage! properly and the other place is mismannged.-Mr. Runne: As every member can see, the Rural District Council estimate is lower, but the union estimate is higher .--Mr. Cooke: Only for my objection first of all Craig, Gordner's man would never have been brought down to the County Hospital.-Chairman: I wish some one objected in time Mr. Lutdier: Is the assessment higher Man last year?-Clerk: It is double. That is ricarly understood by everybody. Anyone that reads the papers can see that .did not pay. - Clerk: They must, because they have no option, -Mr. Lardner; I think the demand is entirely too high. If be useless no matter what we pay. It will be money thrown away.—Mr. Ruane: There are only two things to be done: Mr. Ruane; There is a lot of mismanagreement no doubt,-Mr. Cooke: If you sent all the perticuts in County Galway to Oublin it would not be half as high .- Mr. lardiner; If things go on as they are gothe will have to close their houses. Mr. Lydon said that Mr. Gooke had been sked several times to go on the Comsittee of Management but refused. Whether it was for the gallery or not bo Fas speaking, the Committee did not care twopence, as they would have to get the money. - Mr. Redington; Let the guardons consider the thing if they wish when they are appointing new governors the text time, - Chairman: Nicholas must be appointed whatever happens (laughter).-It was decided to pay the demand.

The Clerk was directed to advertise for several of the members being of opinion that commodities would scarcely lower in unable to procure a supply of sugar for Mr. Radington: Write to the Food Con- tion of land.

troller, and you will get their vouchers The Clerk explained that the merchants referred to were not contractors, but the Land Government Board had ordered that the workhouse supply of sugar be Dot from these who were supplying it immediately before it was rationed.-Mr. lorion: Ask the Controller to withdraw the supply and send it direct. - Directions trere gave to have the matter brought be

Mr. Ladon's motion to have a residence built for the medical officer (Dr. Cusack) Chomamorris, Woodlawn, was attacked. at Turion thereore, which was seconded by five shots being fired at the windows and Mr. Labelter, was passed .- Mr. H. J. Kir- doors of the bouse. non, accest, wrone stating that he would tinan, about the site for the residence at Wineteness.—Mr. Lardner mentioned that Mr. U'Brien said Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Station was entered, ostensibly for the Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the congested Station was entered, ostensibly for the Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the congested Station was entered, ostensibly for the Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Station was entered, ostensibly for the Distress Read Mr. U'Brien said the Congested Station was entered, ostensibly for the Station was entered, ostensibly for the fore moving in the matter.

Cooke asked now it was that the capture was kept going.—The Town Steward indicates the distribution of the liked with the surplus.—It was decided to liked with the Silk Committee before moving in the matter.

Cooke asked now it was that the capture was kept going.—The Town Steward indicates the distribution of the liked with the surplus.—It was decided to like with the Silk Committee before moving in the matter.

Cooke asked now it was that the capture was kept going.—The Town Steward indicates the distribution of the last four the row did you go back to Watters' Mr. Kilbrid weeks although unemployed, and he publishouse?—I did.

Cooke asked now it was that the Cooke asked now it was the the office of the last four the row did you go back to Watters' Mr. Kilbrid weeks although unemployed, and he publishouse?—I did.

Cooke asked now it was that the Cooke asked now it was the the office of the last four the congression of the last to the promoter of the last four the congression of the last to the congression of the last the congression of the last to the promoter of the last the congression of the last the co Districts Board had sixteen acres of land station was entered, estensibly for the Captain Barrett trie in the district which they should be asked purpose of degriving the safe, which, for through the Estates guardians of the Turboughmore district, the inside of the entrance door by cutt- and advantage taken of his absence to de to most the doctor on Monday next to disto the board of guardians .- The Clerk were seen on the floor and safe. said the cost would be a county-at-large charge. He estimated that the building alone would cost 42,000, which could only be latteneed at six per cent, interest. which, added to one-and-a-balf per cent. for repayment of the principal, would total seven-and-a-half per cent, or £150 annually. That was exclusive of the cost of the hand for the site.

CALWAY CUARDIANS TO BLOW UP A HOUSE

And the second second second second second second

BOMB PLACED AT CAPTAIN H. D. HOUGESON'S RESIDENCE. SAVED BY DEFECTIVE FUSE.

FARMER AND TWO SONS REMANDED AT OUGHTERARD. Archbishop of Tuam and Attacks On

Barracks and Dwelling-houses. tempt was made to blow up Captain heary a fatal month for him. Dugley Hodgeson's residence at Currabomb did not explode. esque spot on the shores of the Corrib. put his £1 note into his savings bank fourteen large pieces of gelignite and book and stowed the latter under the other high explosive material were found pillow on which he slept. Another lodger under the wall of the house. A hole had occupied the next room, and whether it been dug under the eve-shoot near the was due to this fact or no McConville's gable-end of the residence for concealing first act on awaking the following mornthe explanates which were well packed in ing was to put his hand under his pillow a card-board box, and a fuse attached to to see if his life savings were safe. But the spot where the bomb was placed. The of his account should be made to anyone bomb was carefully covered with mud, who produced the book other than himto be done to the boiler in the workhouse, About three mehes or more self. From then until nearly the middle the Chairman remarked with a smile that of the fuse was found unbelieved that Mr. Binus, engineer, was burned. On examination it was found further about his savings bank book or that part of the fuse was defective, and the money. Then, one day, news came this, probably, prevented the explosion. that his money had been drawn out of In connection with the affair. Martin the post office at Shrule in his name. The Halloran, senior, and his two sons, Mtn. Halloran, junior, and Michl. Holloran, swore an information.

were subsequently arrested, and brought Patrick Ward, of no

> Hill, R.M., was the magistrate. Hili, R.M., was the magistrate.
>
> Sergeant Reidy, Oughterard, in his deposition, stated: I remember February 21, 1920. On that date I was parking 21, Kilbride, R.M., at Galway Petty Sessions 1920. On that date I was making en- on Monday last, and remanded in custody quiries at the house of Mtn. Halloran (seur.) into the case of astempted explosion by gelignite at the house of Capt. H. D. Hodgeson, Curraveragh, I searched the house. I was assisted by Constables Barrett, O'Leary, and Derrigkin. I was shown a portion of a newspaper (produced) by Constable O'Leary. On my return to is there not a minute on the book that 14. I remember the morning of February we do not pay that assessment?-Clerk: 22. I arrested Mtn. Halloran (sear.) and You have to pay it .- Mr. Cooke: Our Mtn. Halloran (junr.), Derrowera, in their Clerk's estimate for the hospital here did own house. I charged them with attemptnot at all come next or near this, and we ling to blow up Captain H. D. Hodgeson's house with a bomb. I cautioned them, an hour, apparently from shock, as there is patients, the and we have none. I like the like don't know where all the money is going of a thing is that?" He then said: "Oh, that the mains contribute. Our average my God, the man who would do a thing of cost is only 13s. or 14s.—Mr. Ruane: like that! Mr. Hodgeson was always a good friend to me. Mtn. Halloran ents w (junr.), after being charged with the locality good friend to me,35 There is a waste and want in the County offence and cautioned, said: "All right. We had nothing to do with it." evening of the same date Michl. Halloran came to the barrack at Oughterard. I Galway University Governning Body. to pay the assessment. We, and all they arrested him on the same charge preferarrested him on the same charge prefer-red against his father and brother. I of the following University Colleges are cautioned him. He said; "I will stop gazetted: Dublin: Most Rev. Dr. Foley, here." I am still inquiring into the Dr. M. F. Cox, the Master of the Rolls, case, and I require a remand for eight Rev. W. Crawford. Cork: Rt. Rev. Dr.

> Chairman (to the accused) : Have you any questions to ask the sergeaut? Martin Halloran (seur.) declined to cross-examine.

Martin Hulloran, junior (to the ser-don't think so .- What proof have you?-My opinion, piece of the newspaper found at where the week. the bomb was discovered, in-formed the prisoners that he was remanding them for eight days in custedy, and they were subsequently conveyed to Galway jail under a strong police escort.

EIGHT SHOTS

QUEENSFORT HOUSE FIRED INTO.

AT NIGHT, SERVANT'S NARROW ESCAPE.

"ABOMINABLE OUTRAGE," SAYS Mr. Landiner: I think the other unions THE MOST REV. DR. GILMARTIN Motor cars are alleged to have been used in an attack on the residence of Mr. Frank McCormack, at Queensfort, midway bewhat we see in the papers is true, it will tween Tuam and Dunmore, shortly after midnight on Friday night. Eight shots were fired into the dwelling-house. The windows of all the bedrooms in the house the down or pay .- Chairman: It is the were shattered, and Miss Kelly, the cook view of the members of the board that it had a sarrow escape. Mr. McCormack is waste of money, but what can be done? - and his sister were the only other occupants of the house

Mr. McCormack has some land property near Hollymount, Co. Mayo, which is assigned as the cause of the outrage, and is given as a probable explanation of the ing, the ratepayers will be bankrupt, and laileged presence of the motors.

> "CONTEMPLATED MURDER." ARCHBISHOP'S VIGOROUS DENUN-CIATION OF THE OUTRAGE.

ing in Tuam on Sunday, said he was horrified to hear of the abominable crime committed within some five miles of their cathedral town a few nights ago, when the occupants of a house were disturbed in | their sleep in the night by shots fred The Clerk was directed to advertise for through the windows. The fact that the ensuing contracts for twelve months. Providence had safeguarded their lives did not lessen the guilt for which the ruffians who had perpetrated the outrage would have, sooner or later, to render an account. Firing into a house, whether it He (Father Dalton) was as good an Irishwas a police barrack or a dwelling-house, the inmates. -- Clerk: Are they paying any was contemplated murder, and cried to stientien to the Local Government Board heaven for vengeance. He would be glad where: Master: No, the merchants say if the perpetrators were brought to justice, they are not getting it themselves .- Mr. and he was sure the good people of the Cooke: They are getting a supply on their archdiocese had no sympathy with such tards and venctors, and it is not fair that cowardly and wicked crimes. In condemnthese poor inmates should be left without | ing the outrage, he added that he had been sugar. They are getting the sugar on the linformed that the criminals came from a workhouse conchers.-The Master said he distance to express, in this un-Christian only got two stanes of sugar last fortnight. I way, their bed feeling about the occupa-

CATTLE MAIMED AND HOUSE FIRED

INTO. Shots were fired into the dwellinghouse of John Boyle, Cahermachally, Hendford, and the tails of three cattle belonging to Martin Boyle were cut off.

SHOTS AT DWELLING-MOUSE.

On Sunday, the 8th inst., about one a.m., the residence of Thomas Naughton,

ATTEMPT TO ROB GOODS STORE

to give for the purpose. It was decided tunately, was empty, of its contents. The to appoint a committee, consisting of the hurglar managed to reach to the belt on the question of a site, and then report | doing so, he cut his hand, for blood stains

> KINVARA OCCURRENCES. PRIESTS CONDEMN SHOOTING AFFAIR.

On Thursday night last the house of has been arrested, cartridges, it is alleged, Mr. Michael Mannion, Boherbee, Kin- having been found in his possession.

RAGMAN'S STORE URBAN COUNCIL

ALLEGED LARCENY OF POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK BOOK AND £1 NOTE. ADVENTURE IN LODGING HOUSE, Money Brawn From Post Office.

Ed. McConville, rag-gatherer, had £18 9s, 7d, to his credit in the post office savings bank some time about last Hallowe'en, and he was worth a £1 note in On Friday night last a daring at hard cash besides. But November proved

On a certain night in that month he revege, Oughterard. Fortunately, the and his wife took lodgings in a house in Abbeygate-st., Galway, and when he re-Capt. Hodgeson's residence is a picture-tared to rest McConville very carefully it. Had the bomb expleded it is probable the book and the cash had disappeared. that portion of the house would have been He went to the post office at Galway, blown to pieces, as well as the occupants told the clerk behind the counter of his who occupied the rooms directly overhead loss, and ordered that no payments out police made inquiries and McConville

Patrick Ward, of no fixed residence. before a special court on Monday at the was shortly afterwards arrested at Tuam, Oughterard police barrack. Mr. J. B. K. charged with the dareeny of McConville's for a week.

> CYCLE FALL CAUSES DEATH. FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR CLONBUR

A sad accident, resulting in the death of a boy named John Herwood, of took place while returning from Mass Sunday, February 15, While cycling home with two neighbouring boys he fell outside Clonbur village. Dr. Hegarty and Rev. Fr. Finn, C.C., were immediately in at-tendance, but he died within a quarter of

The funeral on Tuesday was large and representative, as the boy and his par-ents were highly popular in the and knew whom you are going to send days to make further enquiries into the Dowse, Most Rev. Dr. Colohan, Mr. the next time.—Mr. Ruane: They make further enquiries into the A. F. Sharman-Crawford. Galway. Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Lord Killenin, Rev. Canon A. E. Ross, Protestant Bishopof Tuam.

> occupants escaped unhurt. part, sergeant?—It did.—Could not any was strongly condemned by the Rev. M. Mr. Rea, a Labour man, suggested put-paper be tern and fit in as that did?—I Fahy, P.P., and the Rev. John Keeley, ting the tells collectors collecting rents

Cinre. Rumour is rife with the report of other

The Chairman, after examining the shooting outrages near the town during be adopted .- Mr. Rea seconded

KHAKI POLICEMEN.

ENGLISH RECRUITS IN GALWAY. English ex-soldier R.I.G. recruits were the prison with Michael Ward, of Boyle, who was arrested for having, as alleged, a rife and ammunition on his premises. The new police, who were, it is stated, frawn from the depot, were in khaki uniform but were the policemen's long black coats and black caps. They carried khaki

LORD KILLANIN LEAVES SPIDDAL.

The recent raid upon his chauffeur's ionse is alleged to be the reason for Lord Killanin and his household having left Spiddal and taken up residence in London. Mr. Ruttledge, the chauffeur (who has also deft Spiddal), was assaulted by the raiders when he attempted to prevent their search for arms.

PRIEST AND RAIDS ON BARRACKS. AN APPEAL TO SINN FEINERS.

At St. Mary's Church, Chrrick-on-Shannon, on Sunday, Rev. Fr. Delton, C.C., asked did people believe the raids on police harracks were doing any good The Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, preaching in Tuam on Sunday, said he was horized to hear of the aborning to example out to the country. If he thought they were, he would be the first to say, "Go ahead"; but he could not say so. If the police were cast aside, the seum of the English towns would be brought over to take their place. No matter what were the faults of the police, they were their own flesh and blood and were as good Itisamen as those who were shouting. He asked Sinn Feiners, as sensible men, to be true to the principles of Sinn Fein and not blacken the country. If they did not the policy was sure to come down. man as any of them, but he could not understand the shooting of the police.

ANOTHER BARRACK CLOSED

Kiltormer (Ballinasloe) police barrack RAID ON CAPTAIN BARRETT'S. CLONBUR.

DISGUISED MEN TAKE GUNS DURING OWNER'S ABSENCE.

Attempt at Doing Good Misconstrued.

On Wednesday night, 18th inst, six disguised men entered the residence of Cupt. Barrett, at Carrick Lodge, Clonbur, and took away a shot-gun and a few air-guns. Capt. Barrett was absent on business in Dublin at the time, his wife and the servant being alone in the house. The Captain is popular in the locality, other industries. The locality around Carrick was quite signed for the raid is that the local ten-through the Estates Commissioners, but his good intentions word misconstrued, ORANMORE ARREST. SHOTS AT DWELLING-HOUSES.

The house of John Neilan, near Oranmore, and of a man named Burke, of Cartron, were fired into early this week. A man named Duggan from the district

FINANCES DISCUSSED AT COM-

MITTEE MEETING. PREMIUM BONDS SUGGESTED. PROPOSAL TO DISMISS RENT COLLECTOR.

the company of the control of the co

TOLLS' AND CUSTOMS' REVENUE. MANY WAYS SUGGESTED FOR INCREASING INCOME.

" One Man, One Plot."

Finances and buildings were discussed at the Committee meeting of the Galway effect that on the night of February 15 (Thursday). Urban Council (yesterday) Thursday. Dr. the family retired to bed at about ten Policemen Messrs, P. Naughton, J. Lee, P. Colohan, count. have a lot of expenses to meet. There and found other similar footprints which is the £300 for the election, there is £600 he covered over. Later he went and rethat the increase in wages has cost, and ported the matter at the Tuam police berthere was that tremendous bill you saw racks, and he was present when Districtfor coal and for the stones and the quarry which was not paid for nine months. An footprints. that will come down on us, and they are big items. So we'll want to be very had taken were produced, Mr. J. V. Faby, careful and watch the money. There are solr. (Messrs. Concanon and Fahy) who two ways of meeting our liabilities, by appeared for defendants, said it was a cutting down expenses and by increasing strange thing if a man's liberty depended our revenue. If you cut the expenses on them.

Continuing, witness said that Martin much as possible.

enough on the tells and customs on which £741 of a profit was made. The Chair-

"Ignore the Act of Parliament," suggested Mr. M. Walsh, but the Secretary reminded him that the people would not pay the tolls then in the event of their being increased, and the Council could not compel them to. Mr. Curran thought they would have a greater revenue if the gaps were better looked after.—The Chaiman said they could put on charges for things that were not mentioned in the schedule, and some one suggested taxing the fowl .- "Our markets are scarce enough; leave the fowl out," Mr. Cooke advised, and Mr. Pat Curran appealed for the turkey to be exempt from duty.

The next way suggested for increasing the collectors employed only on the two which took place while she was on her way market days, Wednesday and Saturday. to a well on her husband's land for water Mr. Ml. Walsh, who was sponsor for this in July. She got a decree of £5 against on.—Mr. Rusne: Unless the assessment is paid you will have to do away with the geant): Did the piece of newspaper shown vara, was fired into, but fortunately the now, and Mr. Walsh said he would be Cal. O'Sullivan said that it

Mr. Rea, a Labour man, suggested put- for the father's action (laughter). paper be torn and fit in as that did?—I fahy, P.P., and the Rev. John Keeley, don't think so.—Aren't there hundreds of deposition which he had previously made he submitted that the remand should not the West was opened up, the better the papers of the same news and of the same have and of the same do away with the permanent rent collection of the same have and of the sam farm at Carrowculeen, Kinvara, were backed this out.—Mr. Connolly thought that the footprints were pointed out to was not a particle of evidence against of Transport. Regarding the Galway not any person going the read pick up that levelled to the ground during the week. it was only waste of money to have a man him by Thomas F. Rooney. paper and throw it into our house?—I Mr. Kearney lives at Carron, County employed at the job when they were making little or no profit on their cottages, and he proposed that Mr. Rea's suggestion ' I do not think it comes well from any-> source of income," was Mr. Cooke's stingposition. There are many ways of saving money besides depriving people of their livelihood," he said.-The Secretary said seen for the first time in Galway on Tues- the cost of the cottages rent collection day evening, when a party of them ar- was £65.-Mr. O'Dea and Mr. Griffin rived on the 6 p.m. train as an escort to stated that the rents were well collected. The Chairman, too, was not in favour of that line of economy, and it was decided that the Committee who went into the election finance should investigate the schedule of prices, and suggest additions and alterations if necessary, they to have power to consult the Council's solicitor on

Mr. Cooke brought under the notice of being lost to the Council, viz., the sale of the refuse manure, which the Council used to make £350 per annum on formerly, but The which now only brought in £17. difficulty was to get a site to dump it.-The Chairman said they could not discuss that matter at that meeting. icences," asked Mr. Curran slily, when the Council were probing for further possible sources of income. He smiled when he was informed that those animals were this year paying an increased tax. The expenditure on the roads came in for criticism directed towards its high amount. The Secretary said they were getting the stones from Shantalla from the County Council at cost price, but said he had got no actual figures to prove it .-The Chairman was dissatisfied with the errangement, stating that when the Co. Council had ascertained the cost of getting the stones the actual figure should have been stated in the agreement .- Mr. Binns engineer, told Mr. Connolly that one stones would have cost probably 12s. a ton when on the streets, and the latter gentleman asked why they should be paying 12s, for granite when they could get imestone for 7s. 6d. a ton. Mr. Ml. Walsh mentioned a man in Coolough who could deliver fifty tons of No man can have two or three plots. road metal at 5s. a ton, and twenty tons per month afterwards at the same price.— The Secretary was directed to get into communication with this man.

The Chairman said it was a foolish idea to cart stones to Menio, for instance, which was all stones.-The Secretary was directed to get particulars of the costhe stones to the County Council from the County Surveyor. Mr. Cooke directed attention to the fact that if the Council gave up getting stuff from the Shantalia quarry a lot of men would be thrown out of employment, but the Lubour members made no com-

In another effort to bring in more money for the Council, Mr. Councily proposed that the grazing of the South Park be increased. The present charge is £3 a cow per aunum, and the Chairman explained that it was let at that price because of and has started meal and other stores with the cowkeepers supplying milk to the de-He is also about to start a saw-mill and the price of the milk had been raised, and Mr. Connolly stated some of the cowkeepers were selling it to outsiders at 8d. and peaceable, and the only reason as a quart .- Mr. Curran said they had to supply the depot first with a fixed quannnts were informed that the Captain tity all the year round, no matter if they > money for building the new houses, was a bers generally spoke in favour of keeping John Folan?—Yes. suggestion of the Chairman during a distance that the man on at some work, as he had a Did he ask you if you knew any of the cassion on the matter. His rich was that the Urban Council issue the Premium paired, and he was ordered to help in putting in them, but no action was taken on the medded.

metter. The identity of the owner of a tillage plot in Newcastle puzzled the Council for | cil engine, and said they should be made | stick on the head. plot in Newcastle puzzled the Council for some time. Mr. P. O'Connor, Abbeygate, and sard they should be made stick on the head.

at., headed a deputation of the plotholders who appeared before the meeting and complained of plots being taken from men in Newcastle. He also said that they wanted the meting and complained of plots being taken from men in Newcastle. He also said that they wanted the made stick on the nead.

Mr. Roche, auctioneer, wrote complained to made stick on the nead.

Mr. Roche, auctioneer, wrote complained to made stick on the nead.

Mr. Roche, auctioneer, wrote complained to made stick on the nead.

Mr. Roche, auctioneer, wrote complained the made stick on the nead.

Mr. Hiklebrand established the position of the plotholders who appeared before the meeting and complained of plots being taken from men in plained of plots bein

MURDER CHARGES ALLEGED FOOTPRINTS

SHOT FIRED THROUGH BEDROOM WENDOW.

DOOR USED AS SANDBAGS.

Informations Refused in Barnadera Case.

At a special court in Tuam on Wednesday, before Col. O'Sullivan, R.M., two young men named Michael and Martin | Extraordinary precautions were taken charged on remand with firing into the by the authorities in connection with the house of T. F. Rooney, Stons-lodge, on further appearance in court of the Mento February 16. Informations were refused, and Spiddal prisoners who were again The first witness sworn was Thomas F. Rooney, and his deposition was to the Walsh, Chairman, presided, and the other) o'clock. Later in the night they were members present were: Mrs. Hardiman, alarmed by the report of a shot fired in it, and the jail when the accused were through their bedroom window, and of J. Grehau, J. Coogan, M. Walsh, J. Grif-glass breaking. Witness got out of bed in, T. Rea, P. Curran, J. Connolly. The Chairman took up the return sheet hinges placed it against the window. He The Chairman took up the return sheet images placed it against the window. He supplied to the members showing the then went to bed again, but did not sleep. The Meulo prisoners—charged with the position of the finances of the Council for the past year. There is £1,000 to credit and, going outside, saw tracks of men as on the poor rate, but that cannot be touched, as it belongs to the Council for the house. On examination witness if in stocking feet. These were leading that the brass fastner in the Fahy, James Fahy, Denis Duggan, Patk windows was marked as if it had been same by Moloney, and John Moloney. One first part forward of the possitions.

The Meulo prisoners—charged with the man which was paid on the ordinary stock for Sir Thomas Blake at Menlo, who was short at his house on February 6—were first put forward. Their names are: Luke discovered that the brass fastner in the Fahy, James Fahy, Denis Duggan, Patk windows are the for the half-year cannot be for the half-year cannot have the half-year c is £532 9s. 2d. in debt on the general ac- window was marked as if it had been struck by something. Witness subsequently ex-

> Inspector Comerford took casts of these When the casts which Mr. Comerford

Continuing, witness said that Martin evidence is; I am only asking has be any McHurh did not always live at his father's evidence. Surely, he should be able to you put up the rates you'll displease every- McHugh did not always live at his father's body (laughter). So whatever you do house, but he was living there on the answer that you'll have to cause displeasure. But I night that the occurrence took place, as you say. think our duty is to cut down expenses as It was about a quarter of a mile from witness's house to the house of Patrick Mc-Then the items of the expenses and in- Hugh. The McHughs and witness were come were gone into in detail. Members not on good terms lately owing to the fact did not think the Council were making that he prosecuted Patk. McHugh in counection with a passage on his (witness's) own land, and which McHugh insisted on man said they were prevented from the creasing the charges by an Act of Parlia-the action, but witness had an appear which would be heard at the Galway Assizes in March. Witness's wife got a making use of. The Recorder dismissed simply ask you to cemand these prisoners question of increasing the directors' fees, gest there is not a particle of evidence decree of £5 against Patrick lichugh for against any of the prisoners, and yet they on the Railway Sub-committee. assault in July. Outside of McHugh and his brother-in-law, Peter McDermott, whom he decreed in July, 1919, witness was on good terms with his neighbours.

Cross-avaringd by Mr. Fisher and so, charges. Cross-examined by Mr. Fahy, solr: On charge, your eath were McHugh and McDermett Head > years?-I had a man named Keane prooessed. And you were only awarded a farthing damages against this man?—That satisfied me all right.

But the Recorder dismissed the action you had against McHugh ?-Yes, Mrs. Rooney, wife of the last witness, The next way suggested for increasing gave similar evidence. She also stated the tolls and customs revenue was to have that she processed McHugh for assault,

Constable Keighery, who was in com- released and the police got any evidence tion received from their Parliamentary corroborative evidence. Mr. Faby said that if there was ever a one. From the meagre evidence supplied You must get evidence to satisfy yourself He thought that Ross's Point Hotel, proing rejoinder in rising to oppose the pro- to the court, there was not a particle of on the subject. evidence which would justify the court in returning these men for trial. He asked, prisoners.

under the circumstances, that informations be refused. Informations were refused and the accused were discharged.

Ulster and the Boycott. "Reports from Strabene state," says the Exchange, "that within Ulster itself now a boycott of business houses in Ulster favouring the partition of Ireland has Mr. Cooke brought under the notice of begun, and Nationalist merchants in N.W the meeting a source of revenue that was Ireland are making no secret of the fact that they will refuse to do business with partition firms, and will place their orders elsewhere." Describing as nonsensical the statement that the commerce of Ulster is worked on money borrowed from the South and West, the "Northern Whig" says: "If the Nationalists built "Could we increase the cost of dog a Chinese wall between the North and the South it would in no way affect Ulster, but it would deave the South much poorer. The people of Ulster are not going to sell their liberty in order to buy Southern trade. We are pleased to trade with Nationalists or any other class, but that is a pure'y business matter and must not be mixed up with politics." the plots in Salthill to be re-let for this year, or plots instead.—The Secretary said that the plots in Newcestle were only and they were only allowed to keep one .--

Mr. Lee: One man, one plot. Chairman: Where was it taken off you?-The plotholder: In court,-Chairman: But we have decided to give those again this year. Any man that has one plot cannot complain, and he has no sympathy.

The plotholder: It was not my plot that ing him, they beat him with sticks. cerned they are, but I rather thought it was taken—it was my father-in-law's.— Ar. Kilbride: Who were beating him? was Mr. Conroy, sair., who would have was taken-it was my father-in-law's .-] Chairman: Have you a plot now?-The plotholder: I have one of my own, and I tinning, he said that his brother got up he has charge of the case yet, want one for my father-hu-law,—Chair-again. Witness saw a man namer Peter Mr. Kilbride: Wol, so long as they are man: Better send him to the Committee O Madley there, and heard two shots approved of by the police, I suppose it same man (laughter).-The plotholder: the road and the attacking party then But my father-in-law is not my wife, is he? ran away through the fields. (renemed laughter).

Cooke agreed.

Council.-The Town Steward said there neares of the injuries he received, and rewas also a shortage of coal, and Mr. mained there for four days. He was ill Cooke asked how it was that the other piterwards at home as a result of the in-Premium Bonds as a way to secure thought be then put him off.—The mem-

> Mr. Curran drew attention to the damage done the streets by the County Coun-

FURTHER REMANDS IN SPIDDAL AND MENLO SHOOTING CASES. STORY OF EX-SOLDIER'S BROTHER. SOLICITOR'S PROTEST AGAINST MENLO ADJOURNMENT.

No Evidence Produced.

remanded on the capital charge by Mr. Kilbride, R.M., at Galway on yesterday Policemen guarded the courthouse and occupied positions along the road between being conveyed from and to the latter. A targe crowd had gathered and were derositions.

Moloney, and John Muloney, -- District-Inspector Hildsbrand prosecuted, and Mr. "We'll want to watch our P's and Q's amined the laneway leading into the house O'Dea, solr., defended, this year," said the Chairman. "We'll of defendants' father, Patk, McHugh, Head-Constable Daly, in reply to Disthe murder of James Ward, and asked for a further remand of the five prisoners.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Den : You have been inquiring into this case since the date of the murder !- I have. And have you got a particle of evidence against the prisoners? Mr. Hildebrand objected to the question.

Mr. O'Dea: I am not asking what the answer that " in the interests of justice,"

Mr. Kithride (to the witness): You . not want to answer that?-No. Mr. Kilbride: You decline to answer it? Mr. O'Den: I would ask you to make him answer. It will not give away the ment. secrets of the prosecution. The police in custody, and this is the second or third

Mr. Kilbride: He says he hopes to get | Port and Harbour Bill would not be prosome evidence in connection with the ceeded with this session, the position was prospect of success. the proper time? -I do not think it is necessary.

Mr. O'Dea said the matter was for his which took place while she was on her way evidence against him. If a witness was was not comparable. The hotels had to a well on her husband's land for water lik, or something like that, it would be a done well, and instified the expenditure different matter and the Crown would be of another £70,000 for a hotel in Sligo. suggestion, said they could be paid 7s. him.

In any was specified to a remand. There must be the passengers to Recess Hotel in 1918 for each of these days.—Mr. Cooke said Mr. Fahy thought that this had nothing some reasonable cause for granting a re- were 682; in 1919, 917. The receipts in mand, and there could not be anything Recess in 1919 were nearly £900 more more unreasonable than to keep men in than the previous year. in Holy Writ that the son was responsible jail against whom there was not a particle open up the island of Achill the same as of evidence. If there was, they were they had opened up the West generally judge between the Crown and the pri- Chairman, "that if the Bill proceeds, we body to try to deprive a person of his case for refusal of informations this was soners, and how are you going to act? shall give it our blessing " (hear, hear).

Mr. Kilbride said he would remand the advantage to the shareholders. Mr. O'Dea: I'd like to know when there is something going to be done, or are they going to be brought up here every week and remanded without evidence? your worship not even ask the District- motion of Mr. T. N. Edgeworth, seconded Inspector when he will be able to give by Archdescon Daly, and his salary was evidence in this case?

Mr. Kilbride: No. THE SPIDDAL PRISONERS. SHOOTING OF EX-SOLDIER AT

LOUGHAUNBEG.

Evidence of Deceased's Brother. Mr. O'Dea, solr., also defended the four men-Bryan Feency, John Feency, Pat Feeney, John Folus, all of Loughaunbegcharged with the murder of Patrick Thornton, an ex-soldier, at Loughaunbeg. Spiddal, where he is alleged to have been shot on February 2. Peter O'Malley, an Irish teacher, is "wanted" in connection with the shooting.

District-Inspector Hildebrand prosecuted, and after the evidence of deceased's brother accused were remanded until Friday next.

Martin Thernton, Loughaunbeg, brother of the deceased man, deposed that an Monday night, Debruary 2 dast, he and [(Thursday), Mr. O'Dea, solr., montioned his brother were in Watters' publichouse to Mr. Kilbride, R.M., that he had got at Loughaunbeg. They left it at 10 o'c. | four sureties to go bail for Mr. S. J. taken from those who had more than one, and went towards home. After going | Leonard (who was returned for trial on along the road for thirty yards witness an embezzlement charge on Monday). He saw two men on one side of the road. had given the names to Mr. Hildebrand, One of the deputation: Here is "one man One of the men was the prisoner. Bryan D.L., and he thought the police were one plot," and it was taken off him. - Peeney, who came behind witness and hit satisfied with the men suggested. him with a stick and caught bim and 1 Mr. Kilbride: That means to take four knocked him. The wore about twelve instead of two? men there altogether. John Folan a Mr. O'Den: Yes. near neighbour of witness's, was there also. Witness's brother was also knocked of by the police?

down by some of the men. After knock-

Witness: I do! not know thom. Con- the principal sav in the matter, as it is and Mr. McCullagh, collector. Don't ap- | being fired. The shots came from near | will be all right. ply yourself.—The plotholder: But it where Peter O'Malley was standing. was I that was summoned for it 2-Chair- Witness saw the flastes of the shots. J. S. Conroy, soir., was sent for and man; Because you had it .- The plotholder: Feter O'Malley was within two yards of witness when the shots were fixed. Wit- Moloney, U.C., Mr. James Lee, Lower It was my wife's (laughter). withes, when the shots were fired. Witidentified Bryan Frency, but Feency, Mr. O'Connor also spoke of taking up John Folan, and Peter O'Malley as being some of the plots at Salthill, and the among the men who came before his posed of when Mr. O'Dea informed Mr. Chairman said the matter would probably brother and himself. Witness knew the Kilbride that be understood the surcties be gone into at the meeting on next prisoners nearly all his life. Peter Thursday. He advised the man who had O'Malley lived within a mile of Leughaun- | Mr. Kilbrid : Gone home? the grievance to send his father-in-law to beg and witness knew him well. The the Committee who were appointed to deal night was bright. The men were not dis- O'Dea replied. with the matter,-Mr. Lee said more land | guised or covered in any way. Witness | they are for the pre-ent. for plots should be taken over, and Mr. found that his brother was shot and he brought him back to Watters', where he Laurence Jennings, a steamroller driver, remained until he he was brought to hoswho had been dismissed while his engine pital in Galway next day. Witness had was getting repaired, appeared before the to go to hountal the same day in conse-

Did you there meet an ex-soldier named

Did you talk to him at all?-No. What were you struck with?-With a

THE MIDLAND A.R. WORTHINGTON AND THE

GALWAY FORT BILL. LARGE DEPOSIT NEEDED

Directors to Give Project "Their Blessing" The annual general meeting of the Midiansi Great Western Radway Company was beld at Broadstone Forterius, Dablin, as-12.50 p.m. yesterday (Thursday), Major

t. C. Cusack, J.P., 14th, chairman of the Directors, presuming, The top-ort and accounts showed gross receipts from the rangery in 1919 of $1,577,373. Geducting expenses, the total net income come to 1203.869. After deducting uncrest, rentals and other fixed charges (£124,250), decidends on guntofficial and Professione stord. and apportuning $15,0% to the general reserve, a balance of the 205 was availpresent in court during the taking of the able for dividend on ordinary stock. The interim dividead of two per cost, per anment of a final dividend of 2 per cont. for the year, learning $21,105 to be carried to next year's account. Resulting from the action taken in Parliament last year the trict-Inspector Hildebrand, deposed that original proposals of the Government reshe was continuing his investigations into pecting the intere of railways were greatly A Ministry of Transport has modified. been established prepresented in Ireland by a Director-Goneral of Transport) to which have been transferred the powers of the Board of Trade and other Government Departments relating to railways, and as a consequential result the Irish Railway Executive Committee censed to exist as from the 1st January, 1920. The Arigua. railway, which extends from the Cavan and Leitrim terminus at Arigna up the Arigna Valley has been completed by the Government and will shortly be opened for

> The usual notice appeared in the Press regarding the Galway (Barna) Harbour and Railway, but it has since been an-nounced that the Bill will not be proceeded with during the present Session of Parlin-

Archdencon Daly, Cort, introduced the arguing that others by combination had time this request has been made. I sugsucceeded in increasing their wages. He protested that Iroland was not represented Mr. Robert Worthington said that with regard to the statement that the Galway Head-Constable : My principal chance the Bill to the stage of the Standing the only parties you had processed over to get evidence is to have the prisoners. Orders Committee. To go before that this right of way within the past few Alr. O'Dea: Will you have evidence at he proper time?

Mr. Kilbride: You need not answer that proceeding, and he trusted that the resuit would be satisfactory (applause). The Chairman, in a general reply, said worship's discretion, but the law, surely, was not that a man could be picked off the road and have the police say that they will hold that man until they get and more merchandise. Beyond that it cycleros against him the witness was anyone of the prisoners. If they were port, the Chairman read the communicapany with District-Inspector Comerford, afterwards, they could be re-arrested. agents notifying them that the Bill would when enquiries were being made, gave Mr. Kilbride:I do not know about that. Mr. O'Dea : Of course, you are the can assure Mr. Worthington," added the > posed to be acquired, would be a great THE SHAREHOLDERS' DIRECTORS Mr. T. Dillon Lawson (formerly manager. Bank of Ireland, Galway), was re-Does elected auditor of the company, on the increased from £50 to £75 per annum. The salary of the second shareholders' auditor was also increased to £75 annu-Archdescon Daly thereupon proposed that the fees for the seven directors be increased from £3,000 per annum to £4,000, free of income tax. Let them divided it botween Ithon. - Dr. Mills seconded. A shareholder protested against the payment of income tax, as this would increase enormously the nominal sum. On a show of hands, after some discussion, the resolution was declared defonted anddst applause.

Ex-Clerk's Ball. BONDS FOR MR. LEONARD MENTIONED IN COURT.

Proposed Sureties' Action. In the Galway court on yesterday

Mr. Kilbridge: And they are approved Mr. Hildebrand: As far as I am concerned they are, but I rather thought it

The matter was postponed until Mr. prrived in court, as also did Mr. Martin Abbeygatest., and Mr. W. Lenihan, Eyre-st., 1sho, it is understood, were Witness there of the suggested sureties. The application was not further mentioned until a Crown case had been dis-had gone home. I think they are fighting shy," Mr. Des replied. "We'll leave them as Mr. Kilbride: Ver- well.

after the blow? - About five minutes. Was that the only blow you received? -I got more blows while on the ground. Did they daze you?—Yes, How many blows dail you get while on the ground?-I got seven or eight blows Mr. Kilbride: Blows of what?-Of a Mr. O'Dea: How did you get up-did anybody help you?--No.

Were you very excited after the attack? did not know anybody that was there?-

Anything like that?-No. Ara you sure?-Yes.

Mr. Hildebrand esked for a further remand, stating that the only other witnesses he would have were the doctors. Accused were then romanded in oustody ight).