LLOYD GEORGE—LIBERAL!!

THE SAD CASE OF LORD MAYOR KELLY.

BROKEN IN HEALTH BY A LIBERAL PRIME MINISTER.

HOW LONG WILL THE COLONIES STAND THIS:

The condition of the Lord Mayor-Elect (Alderman Kelly) is systhat causing considerable uneasiness among his friends, but it is satisfactory to be able to state that there is no immediate need for alarm. It will, however, be some time before he will be able to return to Ireland, and a longer period must clapse before he is in a position to take up the duties of his office as Lord Mayor.

He is in a private nursing home in London under the care of Dr Mark Ryan, who informed our representative that the patient is in a delicate condition, suffering from the effects of his imprisonment in Wormwood Scrubbs.

Careful Nursing Necessary.

doctor said, "as the state of his health will not permit him to return to Ireland. He will recover constant to Ireland. He will recover constant to Ireland. He will recover constant to Ireland. "He will have to remain in this country for some time," the Everyone new condemns the Executive Goreturn to Ireland. He will require constant medical attention the Land Agitation period; most people are and very careful nursing. He is in a condition of nervous and condemning the present regime of repression under military law. That means that this general debility, and is thinner in appearance than when I saw mode of government by repression is not in him last in Dublin. He, however, slept for five hours last secondance with moral law (Monday) night, and I am hopeful that a great improvement an unjust aggression comes from a private individual it is lawful to repel it. Theoretimay take place in his condition within the next few weeks."

Meeting with Wife Deferred.

Mrs. Kelly and her son (Isaac) arrived in London last night, and were met at Euston Station by Mr. William Sears, M.P., and Mr. J. H. MacDonnell, solicitor. Dr. Ryan did not consider it advisable that Mrs. Kelly should see her husband until to-day. She will remain in London until the Alderman is in a condition to travel to Dublin

Mrs. Kelly was indignant at the statement, from an "official source," issued yesterday by a newsagency, that her husband had agreed to any condition as the price of his release.

Undertaking Denied.

Alderman Kelly, we are informed, made no conditions, and Bear this period of persecution patiently; it Price Raised to 3/- a Pound to Make States will continue to support the rights of refused to give any undertaking whatever. Mr. Serieant Sullivan said:-My lords, on behalf of the Irish Bar I desire to say a few words to associate this profession with the expression of condolence with the relatives of the late Lord Chief Baron, and the appreciation of his career that have fallen from your lordship. He was himself in his person a vindication of the position of the civil power as the great guardian of the rights and liberties of humble men.

He was a great judge, because he was a great lover of liberty, and he appreciated and he caused others to know that the true interpretation of all law must ever be in consonance with the idea of the freedom of those who have no other protection but that of the law.

He hated tyranny in every shape and form. HE WAS ACUTE TO PROTECT THE SUBJECT AGAINST ALL CLAIMS OF THE EXECUTIVE IF BEYOND REASON OR BEYOND LAW; acute also to vindicate the great principles of personal freedom by protecting those who stood alone against any attempt to bully them or deprive them of their liberty in whatever name the claim was advanced.
