

THE NORTH MUST PAY FOR PARTITION

Carson Says We Belong to England. Ireland Says Ulster Belongs to Us

WHAT WILL THE NORTHERN BANKS SAY?

The secession of "Ulster" from Ireland is bound to have important financial and commercial consequences. It is quite unusual for the depositors of banks to entrust their money to banks located in another country, and answerable to the courts of a jurisdiction different from that under which they themselves live.

The fact has been recognised by the big English combines which have so recently acquired the ownership of two of the Northern Banks. The new directorates have maintained the old and preserved the titles and the managements of the Ulster concerns as they stood, it being recognised that Irish depositors were not likely to keep their money with purely English institutions.

This principle is bound to operate, apart from all political considerations, when the new "Ulster" is delimited and cut off, and made a separate country under its own legislature, executive, and judiciary.

THE BANKS INVOLVED.

Three banks are principally involved—the Ulster Bank, the Northern Bank, and the Belfast Banking Company. A cursory examination of their reports shows that the first of these banks will have more than half its branches and sub-branches outside CARSONIA if partition is effected; 53 branches and 72 sub-branches.

The Ulster Bank holds Twenty-eight-and-a-Half Millions of Deposits, upwards of half of which will be exposed to the influence of the change.

Twenty-four branches of the Northern and 31 sub-branches are involved. The Northern Company holds Thirteen Millions. The Belfast Banking Company has not as extensive ramifications outside the proposed area—as only 16 of its branches are to be found there, and 22 of its sub-branches. The deposits with the Belfast Banking Company amount to Seventeen Millions.

WHAT THE FIGURES SHOW.

These figures show that a considerable financial disturbance may result from the offensive political partition of the territory in which the banks operate, and the conversion of the locality of their Head Offices and Directorates into a sort of enemy territory in its relations with the rest of their domain.

The prospect is causing serious misgiving in Belfast business circles, but the commercial interests are over-ruled by the sectarian.

THREE HOURS FIGHT FOR A BARRACK

Police Beat Off Attackers in Kerry

ARMS ABANDONED

Camp police barracks, near Castlegregory, Tralee, was attacked on Wednesday night. Rifles, hand-grenades, and revolvers were used by the attackers, the police relying on bayonets and shot from the barracks.

COOMBE SHOOTING.

Two Constables Charged with Demanding Money with Menaces

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED

Patrick J. Hussey and Patrick Flannery, two constables of the D.M.P., stationed at Kevin street barracks, were charged at the Dublin Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Justice Byrne, with demanding money with menaces from a householder in Co. Wick.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

The latter, however, refused to do so, and kept up a stubborn defence, using his own revolver, and shot at the police. The police then fired, and shot at the man, and a shot revolver after them.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

The revolver bore bullet marks on the barrel, indicating that it had been hit from the side. The man was wounded in the arm, and shot from the hand of the police holding it.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

The police believe this man and two others who left rifles after the shooting, and who were seen to be carrying arms, were the same as those who were seen to be carrying arms in the Co. Wick shooting.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

It was found that telegraph and telephone communication was completely cut off, and the police, fearing that simultaneous attacks would be made on outlying police stations, proceeded in sections towards Ballyheigue, Oherilly, and Camp Park.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

At a meeting of Mullingar Rural District Council the following resolution, proposed by Mr. Thomas Nugent and seconded by Mr. Nicholas Moran, was passed unanimously:

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Resolved, That we, the members of the Mullingar Rural District Council, unanimously endorse the action of the Hierarchy in the demand for the right of an undivided Ireland to be determined by the Government of Great Britain, which is unjustly and cruelly denied.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

At a meeting of Mullingar Rural District Council the following resolution, proposed by Mr. Thomas Nugent and seconded by Mr. Nicholas Moran, was passed unanimously:

REMARKABLE CORK DISCOVERY

Unknown Man Found Shot Dead Near the City

NINE BULLET WOUNDS

Cork was treated to a further sensation yesterday, when a man was found shot dead on the outskirts of the city. The body was that of a young and respectably dressed man and was discovered in a field close to the junction of Macroom and Bandon Railway. Bullet wounds were observed in the head and body, some of which a cup and rosary beads were found.

IDENTITY UNKNOWN.

All efforts to establish his identity have failed, and the body was removed in a military lorry to the morgue. An examination of the remains showed that no less than 9 shots appear to have been discharged into the body. The head was shattered and the brain protruded. One bullet is said to have gone clean through the heart. District Inspector McDonough and policemen from Bandon station, visited the scene and are busily engaged in prosecuting inquiries into the occurrence.

SHOTS HEARD.

It was learned last evening that about 10 o'clock on Wednesday night many shots, fired in rapid succession, were heard in the vicinity. The scene of the murder, though comparatively dark, is a place where a crime, at night especially, is perpetrated without much fear of immediate detection. The body was found lying in a field, and from which was an earth floor topped with a timber paling.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Examination showed that the head and body were riddled with as many as 10 bullet wounds, and it is said that the victim was severely injured at close range. The impression is that the victim was a man of some means, and that he was shot in a place where he was alone.

INVESTIGATION.

An inquest will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. An inquest will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. An inquest will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MORE DUBLIN RAIDS

Old Soldier's House Searched for Sinn Féin

A force of military, fully armed, made a raid in the vicinity of Fildesay avenue, Drumcondra, at 3.30 on Thursday morning, and made three arrests.

ENCOUNTER WITH THE POLICE.

A Corporation refuse train was passing the place in charge of three men, one of whom stated that he saw two policemen at the bottom of Grafton street, outside Messrs. Hamilton and Long's chemist's shop.

SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

Further investigations show that the constable was shot opposite Bernard's furniture shop in Grafton street, where a post of blood marks the place where he fell. The wounded civilian was picked up opposite the public lavatory in College street.

TWO POLICEMEN AND A CIVILIAN SHOT IN DUBLIN

Constable Dead: Unknown Man and Sergeant Wounded

CIVILIAN'S LIFE DESPAIRED OF

Fusilade Across the Street in the Early Morning

A sensational and fatal shooting affair occurred in Dublin this morning about ten minutes to two o'clock, as a result of which one policeman (Constable Walsh) is dead, and an unknown civilian lies in a very critical condition. Sergeant Dunleavy is in hospital, also wounded, but not seriously.

IT APPEARS THAT AS SERGEANT DUNLEAVY (11 B) AND CONSTABLE WALSH (31 B) WERE ON PATROL DUTY AT THE COLLEGE GREEN END OF GRAFTON STREET THEY OBSERVED A GROUP OF YOUNG MEN AT THE OPPOSITE SIDE OF THE STREET.

REVOLVER SHOTS NEXT RANG OUT, AND THE POLICE WERE STRUCK BY BULLETS. CONSTABLE WALSH WAS KILLED.

A REVOLVER WAS SUBSEQUENTLY FOUND NEAR THE BODY. THE STREETS WERE DESERTED AT THE TIME.

THE POLICEMAN AND CIVILIAN WERE REMOVED TO MERCER'S HOSPITAL. THE CIVILIAN WAS UNIDENTIFIED UP TO THE TIME WE WENT TO PRESS.

ON INQUIRY AT THE HOSPITAL IT WAS LEARNED THAT CONSTABLE WALSH HAD SUCCEEDED TO HIS WOUNDS.

CONSTABLE WALSH (31 B), WHO WAS FATALLY INJURED, AND SERGEANT DUNLEAVY (11 B) WERE SHOT AT THE COLLEGE GREEN END OF GRAFTON STREET.

THE CIVILIAN, WHOSE NAME HAS NOT BEEN ASCERTAINED, RECEIVED HIS INJURIES OUTSIDE WESTMORELAND CHAMBERS, AT THE CORNER OF WESTMORELAND STREET AND COLLEGE STREET.

UP TO THE TIME OF GOING TO PRESS IT WAS DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN A CONNECTED ACCOUNT OF THE GRIM AFFAIR, WHICH POSSESSES A LARGE ELEMENT OF MYSTERY.

SOME EYE-WITNESSES' STORIES

FROM A STATEMENT MADE TO OUR REPORTER BY A MAN WHO WAS PASSING ALONG WESTMORELAND STREET AT THE TIME OF THE OCCURRENCE, IT WAS GATHERED THAT SHOTS WERE FIRED BY ABOUT SIX MEN STANDING ON THE FOOTPATH NEAR MESSRS. CRAMER'S ESTABLISHMENT.

THE MEN WERE FACING IN THE DIRECTION OF COLLEGE STREET, AND THEY FIRED FROM 12 TO 20 SHOTS IN RAPID SUCCESSION. THEY THEN PROCEEDED IN THE DIRECTION OF GRAFTON STREET, AND AFTER A BRIEF INTERVAL FURTHER SHOTS WERE HEARD.

THE ENCOUNTER WITH THE POLICE.

A CORPORATION REFUSE TRAIN WAS PASSING THE PLACE IN CHARGE OF THREE MEN, ONE OF WHOM STATED THAT HE SAW TWO POLICEMEN AT THE BOTTOM OF GRAFTON STREET, OUTSIDE MESSRS. HAMILTON AND LONG'S CHEMIST'S SHOP.

SOME SHOTS WERE FIRED, AND HE SAW A CIVILIAN RUNNING ACROSS SUFFOLK STREET, AND ANOTHER PROCEEDING RAPIDLY UP GRAFTON STREET. ONE BULLET PASSED CLOSE TO THE WAGON NEXT WHICH HE WAS STANDING.

THE CIVILIAN FELL FIRST AT THE POLICE, WHO THEN DREW THEIR REVOLVERS AND RETURNED THE FIRE. HE SAW A CONSTABLE FALLING ON THE FOOTPATH, AND THE SERGEANT CONTINUED TO FIRE UNTIL HIS AMMUNITION WAS APPARENTLY EXHAUSTED. HE THEN RAN ALONG TOWARDS BRUNSWICK STREET POLICE STATION SHOUTING, "OH, MY GOD! I AM HIT!"

ANOTHER MAN SAW THE SERGEANT PROCEEDING AROUND THE CORNER INTO COLLEGE STREET, AND HE SEEMED TO BE IN GREAT AGONY. HE WAS MOANING AND CALLING FOR HELP, BLOWING HIS WHISTLE AS HE PROCEEDED.

ACCORDING TO A STATEMENT BY A SOLDIER WHO WITNESSED ANOTHER PHASE OF THE OCCURRENCE, THERE WERE THREE PARTIES OF CIVILIANS WITH REVOLVERS, ONE IN BRUNSWICK STREET, ANOTHER IN WESTMORELAND STREET, AND A THIRD IN COLLEGE STREET. HE SAW THE CIVILIAN IN A DOORWAY AT COLLEGE STREET, WHERE HE HAD CRAWLED.

THE SHOOTING AT COLLEGE STREET CORNER.

FURTHER INVESTIGATIONS SHOW THAT THE CONSTABLE WAS SHOT OPPOSITE BARNARD'S FURNITURE SHOP IN GRAFTON STREET, WHERE A POST OF BLOOD MARKS THE PLACE WHERE HE FELL.

THE WOUNDED CIVILIAN WAS PICKED UP OPPOSITE THE PUBLIC LAVATORY IN COLLEGE STREET ABOUT SEVEN MINUTES TO TWO A CAR DRIVER ON THE HAZARD IN COLLEGE GREEN, OPPOSITE TRINITY COLLEGE, WAS STARTLED BY THE SOUNDS OF SHOTS.

THEY WERE FIRED, HE BELIEVED, FROM THE WESTMORELAND STREET PORTICO OF THE BANK OF IRELAND IN THE DIRECTION OF COLLEGE STREET.

SHORTLY AFTERWARDS A CIVILIAN WAS SEEN RUNNING PAST TRINITY COLLEGE GATE TOWARDS GRAFTON STREET, AND A FURTHER VOICE WAS HEARD. THESE SHOTS, WHICH PROBABLY KILLED CONSTABLE WALSH, APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN FIRED AT THE CORNER OF MESSRS. CRAMER'S SHOP.

THE SERGEANT AND CONSTABLE WERE IN COMPANY AT THE TIME. THE SERGEANT WAS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED IN THE STOMACH AND NO FEARS ARE ENTERTAINED ABOUT HIS RECOVERY.

A REVOLVER WAS FOUND AT THE SPOT WHERE CONSTABLE WALSH'S BODY WAS PICKED UP. A TEXT-CASE STROVE UP, AND CONSTABLE WALSH WAS TAKEN TO MERCER'S HOSPITAL. HE HAD ALREADY SUCCEEDED TO HIS WOUNDS.

SERGEANT MONTELL, OF MERRION SQUARE, WAS TELEPHONED FOR.

THE POLICE STATED THAT THE REVOLVER FOUND NEAR THE DEAD CONSTABLE IS NOT OF THE POLICE PATTERNS.

CITY SPECIAL PAPER

FROM TO-DAY'S LONDON PAPERS

LATEST NEWS AND VIEWS

EMINENT CHEMIST'S DEATH.

The "Morning Post" says—Dr. J. Emerson Reynolds, a distinguished chemist, died suddenly at his residence in Inverness Gardens, Kensington. A doctor, he was born in January, 1844, at Booterstown, Co. Dubh. He was educated at Dublin University, and D.Sc. and D.C. of Dublin. He was a member of the College of Physicians of Dublin and Edinburgh. For nearly 30 years he was Professor of Chemistry and Chemical Philosophy at Dublin University. He held the appointment of Keeper of the Mineral Deposits in Dublin National Museum, and was also a member of the Royal Dublin Society, and Professor of Chemistry in the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland.

SPORTING PROPHECIES.

HURST PARK MEETING.

Springing Life (Angus)—Novice's Steeplechase, The Whip; Teddington Hurle, Wiganham; Richmond Hurle, King Eber; Clons; Schoonemans; Hampton Hurle, The Gynahs; Peterham Hurle, Devonport (last).

SPORTSMAN (Vigilant)—Novice's Chase, Supt. Charlie if absent; Promoter; Teddington Hurle, Maypole or Promoter; Richmond Hurle, King Eber; Amateurs' Chase, Salt Spray; Hampton Hurle, Court Bledny; Peterham Hurle, Wiganham (last).

SPORTSMAN (Vigilant)—Novice's Chase, Supt. Charlie if absent; Promoter; Teddington Hurle, Maypole or Promoter; Richmond Hurle, King Eber; Amateurs' Chase, Salt Spray; Hampton Hurle, Court Bledny; Peterham Hurle, Wiganham (last).

DAILY MAIL (Robin Goodfellow)—Novice's Chase, The Whip; Teddington Hurle, Wiganham; Richmond Hurle, King Eber; Amateurs' Chase, Salt Spray; Hampton Hurle, Court Bledny; Peterham Hurle, Wiganham (last).

ATTACKED IN HER SHOP

Outrage by Men in Uniform Near South Circular Road

Mrs. Myles Kelly was, it is alleged, attacked last night by two men in soldiers' uniform in her husband's shop, the Wellington place, South Circular road, and sustained injuries which necessitated hospital treatment.

IT IS SAID THAT AT ABOUT 8.30 TWO MEN IN military garb entered the shop and asked for a pack of playing cards. Mrs. Kelly, who was alone in the shop, told them the price, whereupon they declared that they had not sufficient money, and withdrew. After an interval of 20 minutes, however, they returned, and said they would take the cards.

IN ORDER TO GET THEM, Mrs. Kelly had to go outside the counter, and as she was searching for the pack of cards in the window, she received a stinging blow on the back of the head.

SHE RAN TO HER HOME, AND CALLED FOR assistance. The men brushed past her, and made a hurried exit from the shop before help was forthcoming. They disappeared in a cab to a neighbouring chandler's shop.

Mrs. Kelly was very weak with an ugly gashed wound in the head. She was removed to a cab to a neighbouring chandler's shop, and was subsequently taken to the Meath Hospital, where she received three stitches.

"A DUBLIN ACCENT"

No further light has been thrown on the identity of a man who was found shot dead in a Dublin lane on Monday morning last.

AN INQUEST WAS HELD YESTERDAY, when the jury found that deceased came to his death by a suicide pistol poisoning, self-administered.

IT WAS STATED THAT SEVERAL PIECES OF a bluish hard substance were found on the chair in the room the deceased occupied.

THE MANAGER OF THE hotel said he thought the deceased was a Dubliner by his accent.

SERGEANT A. COONEY said the police were doing all they could to establish the identity of the man.

HE HAD LEFT NOTHING BEHIND that would lead to them finding out who he was, and it was evident that he intended that.

AMERICAN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

A STRONG CLOSE.

New York, Thursday. Stocks opened irregular and later rallied under a broad inquiry for investment and low-priced rails, which was stimulated by the progress of railroad legislation at Washington. The closing was strong.

GOVERNMENT BONDS; RAILROAD BONDS.

Money steady; sterling exchange strong, silver unchanged. (Reuter.)

NEW YORK PRODUCE

COTTON STEADY; SPOT CORN FIRM.

Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

CHICAGO PRODUCE.

Wheat—Spot firm. Corn firm. Pork firm. Lard firm. Sugar firm. Coffee firm. Flour firm. Tallow firm. Iron and copper firm.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.

NEW YORK PRODUCE

Cotton steady; spot corn firm. Cotton declined on Wall Street selling and bear pressure, but rose on foreign exchange, foreign buying and covering, and closed steady; spot quiet. Cotton oil weak; spot unquoted; May, 20.00. Petroleum refined steady. Lard—Class market quiet. Wheat—Spot market quiet. Flour—Spot market quiet. Tallow firm. Sugar steady. Coffee declined on selling by houses with Santos connections, but advanced on good buying and a firm exchange, and closed firm. Spot tin firm. Iron and copper steady.