

ORANGE OUTBREAK. LIMERICK SENSATION. SINN FEINER SHOT DEAD. Child Seriously Wounded.

Investigative Shot Dead
And Civilians Wounded.

Sunday Night.—The first of the Orange outbreaks in Limerick, which was a fatal one, occurred on Sunday night, when a Protestant, who was shot dead, and a child was seriously wounded. The Orange band, which was marching through the city, was met by a group of Sinn Féin men, who were armed with revolvers. The Orange band was fired upon, and the child was wounded. The Orange band was then dispersed, and the child was taken to hospital.

Child Seriously Wounded.
The child, who was a girl, was shot in the leg. She was taken to hospital, and is now recovering. The Orange band was then dispersed, and the child was taken to hospital.

Investigative Shot Dead.
The man, who was shot dead, was a Protestant. He was shot in the chest. He was taken to hospital, and died. The Orange band was then dispersed, and the child was taken to hospital.

ARRESTS AND TRIALS BY VOLUNTEERS.

Money Returned To P.O.
At Dingle, says a "Sunday Independent" correspondent, three arrests were made by Volunteers. The prisoners were made by a guard in the Carnegie Library, and were taken to the police station. The money was returned to the P.O.

At Dingle, says a "Sunday Independent" correspondent, three arrests were made by Volunteers. The prisoners were made by a guard in the Carnegie Library, and were taken to the police station. The money was returned to the P.O.

LIMERICK SINN FEINER SHOT DEAD. LITTLE CHILD WOUNDED.

FATAL RIOTS IN DERRY. POLICEMAN AND CIVILIAN DEAD. DISGRACEFUL YOUGHAL OUTRAGE.

M.R. DEVLIN SPEAKS.
GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY.

Great indignation has been aroused in Youghal by an outrage in which the marble statue of Father Peter O'Neill was dragged off its pedestal and decapitated.

At 8.30 on Saturday evening, Mr. James Dalton, a one time prominent member of Sinn Féin in Limerick, was shot dead a short distance from his home. He was fired at and wounded some time ago. On Saturday evening, when leaving a public house he was met by a party of men with revolvers, who fired point blank. The first volley took effect, and Dalton fell. Further shots were fired at him while he lay on the ground. A little girl of six, who came in the line of fire, was shot through the leg.

Speaking at Cardiff, Mr. Joseph Devlin said order in Ireland could not be established until the army of occupation was withdrawn. He believed the English soldiers sent there loathed the task, and it was not fair to ask them to do it. Ulster could not be divorced from the rest of Ireland as a separate nation. The blame for the present state of affairs was attached to politicians, and he believed the people of England detested the military system, but silence was dishonourable to the spirit of British justice.

Fierce rioting took place in Derry on Saturday night. Sergeant Moloney, R.I.C., received a bullet wound and died in half an hour. A civilian was shot in the chest, and is in hospital. Mr. McDonagh, D.I., was wounded. He is not the officer of the same name recently wounded in Cork. Last night the rioting was renewed. An ex-soldier was shot dead.

Limerick hurlers won from Cork yesterday by 3 goals and 1 point to 1 goal and 2 points.

Portion of the dissolved military barracks at Mitchelstown were raided on Sunday morning and burned down.

Lord French is going to inspect Ypres.

Carranza, the Mexican President, is reported to have surrendered. The Anglo-French Conference at Lymington, Kent, resulted in important decisions.

The Spa Conference is to be postponed until after the German elections. Disarmament, however, shall be enforced at once. A definite sum is to be fixed for reparations. Mr. Millerand agreeing to this on the condition that France receives a sum on account.

FROM TO-DAY'S "DAILY NEWS."

IRISH CRISIS.
Duty of Liberals.

To-day's "Daily News" in a leading article, says:—It seems to me to be high time that the Liberals should make their position plain, in face of the torrent of threats that is being poured out against Ireland. No decent man can regard with apathy the suggestion that the crimes and outrages which have provoked it. But if we are really now driven to a choice between Ireland with a machine gun at every street corner and bloodshed continuing every country lane, and an Ireland standing solemnly aloof from any communion with the Empire, we cannot hesitate for a moment. We should choose the latter. The prospect of an Independent Sinn Féin Republic, which we think a solution would be for England, had for Ireland, and had for the world, is a suggestion that is a possible solution at all.

But apart altogether from this, as it seems to us very reasonable, it is the plain duty of the Liberals to be true to the first principles of their political faith to make their opposition to this talk of machine guns and military reconquest plain beyond any doubt. The Government should be made to see that the maintenance of force in Ireland is the last resort, and that the Government should be made to see that the maintenance of force in Ireland is the last resort, and that the Government should be made to see that the maintenance of force in Ireland is the last resort.

CHURCH CEREMONIES. ST. VINCENT'S. PUBLIC MEETING IN CORK.

ADDRESS BY MESSRS. FARREN AND JOHNSON.

A public meeting under the auspices of the Irish Trades Congress was held in the City Hall yesterday at 3 o'clock. Mr. Geo. Nasson, President of Cork and District Trades and Labour Council, presided.

The Chairman of the meeting, Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, said that the meeting was held in the City Hall yesterday at 3 o'clock. Mr. Geo. Nasson, President of Cork and District Trades and Labour Council, presided.

The Chairman of the meeting, Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, said that the meeting was held in the City Hall yesterday at 3 o'clock. Mr. Geo. Nasson, President of Cork and District Trades and Labour Council, presided.

CORK HUNGER STRIKE.

Four Removals From Prison.

Messrs. Amisdown, Ryan, Kennedy and Flanagan, all of Tipperary, the four hunger strikers who have been confined in the hospital at Cork, were removed from the hospital on Saturday morning for some days past, were on Saturday removed to the District Hospital. The removal took place on the recommendation of the prison doctor, and the men, who were conveyed from the hospital, were sufficiently well to enable them to go during the journey. The other two hunger strikers, Messrs. Cahill (Ennis) and Kennedy (Ennis), were transferred to the hospital from No. 10 Division. With the exception of these two men there are now no political prisoners in the great central hospital. On inquiry last night at the Cork District Hospital it was ascertained that all the other hunger strikers were sufficiently improved. They are, however, still very weak and unable to partake of solid food. It is expected that the two remaining strikers, Messrs. Cahill and Kennedy, who are at the very weak, will be removed to the District Hospital to-day.

Mr. Thomas Stack, T.C., Visiting Justice, Striker in the case of the hunger strikers, Messrs. Cahill and Kennedy, who are at the very weak, will be removed to the District Hospital to-day.

MARTIAL LAW.

Dublin Report.

A Press Association telegram says:—On inquiry in Dublin official circles it is reported that martial law would be proclaimed in Ireland within the next few days.

The report that martial law would be proclaimed in Ireland within the next few days.

MITCHELSTOWN BURNING.

Military Premises Destroyed.

Mitchelstown, Sunday Night.—About 3 a.m. this morning portion of the dissolved military barracks here was destroyed by fire. Mr. Foley, caretaker, was aroused by the sound of his dog, which was barking wildly. He went to the door and found the building on fire. He tried to put out the fire, but it was too late. The building was completely gutted, except the outer walls, which remain standing. Happily, neither Mr. Foley nor his daughter sustained injuries beyond the smoke natural in such circumstances.

A determined attempt was made to set fire to the main building, which is situated opposite to Mr. Foley's house. The flames were saturated with what appeared to be petrol, and though the flames took light, they were extinguished by the building practically escaped injury, except the amount of glass broken.

The barracks have not been in use for a number of years, except on rare occasions during the late war.

THE FRENCH STRIKES.

May Be Terminated By Return Of Railwaymen To Work.

Paris, Sunday.—The railway leaders are today discussing the question of calling off the strike. It is understood that advice has been given to the railwaymen to return to work. The strike is being called off by the railwaymen.

BEATIFICATIONS AT ROME.

Ceremonies At Cork.

In deference to the wishes of His Lordship the Bishop, the beatification ceremonies at Cork will be held on Saturday next. The ceremonies will be held on Saturday next.

CORK STREETS AT NIGHT.

Armed police and military were again on duty in the principal streets of Cork last night. As is customary on Sunday evenings large crowds paraded the thoroughfares, but about midnight the city presented a deserted appearance. No untoward incident took place.

Patriot's Statue Smashed.

Youghal, Saturday.—The hitherto fairly peaceful atmosphere here gave way to a scene of general indignation and disorder when the statue of Father Peter O'Neill, the patriotic P.P. of Ballymacoda, was dragged off its pedestal and decapitated in falling against the lowest step of the base.

THE IRISH GUARDS.

Attempted Disaffection.

Distribution of Bolsheviki Pamphlets.

Harold Percy Burgess, manager of "The Workers' Dreadnought," of which Miss Sylvia Pankhurst is editor, was charged at Bow street on Saturday with having done an act calculated to cause disaffection in the Irish Guards by supplying or attempting to supply a pamphlet entitled "Soviete for the British." Also being charged with distributing the same. The four panels were inscriptions in Irish, composed by the late Canon O'Leary and in English, stating that O'Leary and Patrick Gallagher were cruelly flogged, and Patrick Gallagher and Charles O'Brien unjustly hanged in 1913 by British soldiers. The four panels were inscriptions in Irish, composed by the late Canon O'Leary and in English, stating that O'Leary and Patrick Gallagher were cruelly flogged, and Patrick Gallagher and Charles O'Brien unjustly hanged in 1913 by British soldiers.

BURLESQUE POLICE METHODS.

Bank Robber Surrenders "On Terms."

New York, Sunday.—"Nicky" Arinstein, who is alleged to have been the mastermind of the recent bank robberies in New York, surrendered himself yesterday under circumstances suggestive of comic opera. Arinstein has been at large for three months openly negotiating the amount of his bail and sending messages to the press. At 8 a.m. he met Edward J. Herlihy, a police officer, in an automobile at the Columbus Statue. A police parade was starting, and Arinstein drove past the reviewing stand and saluted the onlookers. He was then escorted to his arrest. On reaching the District Attorney's building, he found no one there, except reporters, who greeted him in friendly fashion. He stated that he has been residing at Pittsburgh. This man is accused of complicity in thefts aggregating millions of dollars. Mr. Wilson, "Daily News" Correspondent.

CRIMSBY TRAWLER LOST.

With Ten Hands.

The Grimby trawler Svendia has been lost in the North Sea with ten hands. The trawler Tetrach, reports seeing her disappear on Thursday after an explosion. A search was made for survivors, without success; only two coats and a skylight being found.

SKIBBEREEN OUTRAGE.

Malicious Injury Claim.

Skibbereen, Saturday.—At a meeting of the Skibbereen Union, which was held on Saturday evening, a motion was passed that a claim for malicious injury should be made against Mr. P. Sheehy, solicitor, Editor of the "Examiner," who had been injured at Market street, Skibbereen, such injury arising out of a combination of a political character or an unlawful assembly.

SKIBBEREEN OUTRAGE.

Malicious Injury Claim.

Skibbereen, Saturday.—At a meeting of the Skibbereen Union, which was held on Saturday evening, a motion was passed that a claim for malicious injury should be made against Mr. P. Sheehy, solicitor, Editor of the "Examiner," who had been injured at Market street, Skibbereen, such injury arising out of a combination of a political character or an unlawful assembly.

SKIBBEREEN OUTRAGE.

Malicious Injury Claim.

Skibbereen, Saturday.—At a meeting of the Skibbereen Union, which was held on Saturday evening, a motion was passed that a claim for malicious injury should be made against Mr. P. Sheehy, solicitor, Editor of the "Examiner," who had been injured at Market street, Skibbereen, such injury arising out of a combination of a political character or an unlawful assembly.

SKIBBEREEN OUTRAGE.

Malicious Injury Claim.

Skibbereen, Saturday.—At a meeting of the Skibbereen Union, which was held on Saturday evening, a motion was passed that a claim for malicious injury should be made against Mr. P. Sheehy, solicitor, Editor of the "Examiner," who had been injured at Market street, Skibbereen, such injury arising out of a combination of a political character or an unlawful assembly.

SKIBBEREEN OUTRAGE.

Malicious Injury Claim.

Skibbereen, Saturday.—At a meeting of the Skibbereen Union, which was held on Saturday evening, a motion was passed that a claim for malicious injury should be made against Mr. P. Sheehy, solicitor, Editor of the "Examiner," who had been injured at Market street, Skibbereen, such injury arising out of a combination of a political character or an unlawful assembly.