

SUMMONED TO DOWNING ST. WOMEN & CHILDREN FLOODS AND DEATH THE HANDLING OF MUNITIONS CITY SPECIAL EDITION FROM TO-DAYS LONDON PAPERS LATEST NEWS AND VIEWS

French, Greenwood and Macready at G.H.Q.

CABINET COUNCIL ON IRELAND

More of the More Force Policy

JOHN BULL WARSHIPS FOR IRISH PORTS

Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Sir Nevill Macready, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in Ireland, have been summoned to Downing street, and were escorted yesterday by armed guards to Kingstown.

GREENWOOD AND MACREADY CALLED TO LONDON

Sir Hamar Greenwood, the Chief Secretary, left Kingstown yesterday morning by the mail boat for Holyhead, en route to London.

"COMING TO GRIPS"

To quote the current phrase in official circles the Cabinet are "coming to grips" with the Irish situation.

SPECIALLY SUMMONED

Lord French and Sir Hamar Greenwood have been specially summoned to Downing street to participate in the Ministerial council.

MOBILISATION BEGUN

Large bodies of troops are under orders at Kingstown.

ENGLAND'S GAME

The Partition Bill and Its Financial Scheme

According to a White Paper issued as a further memorandum on the financial provisions of the Partition of Ireland Bill, the bulk of the receipts from Irish revenue is reserved to the Imperial Exchequer.

A WORLD REVOLUTION

Secret Conference of Communists in Switzerland

The Berlin correspondent of the "Amsterdam Handelsblad" has obtained possession of a report of the secret Communist Conference held at Constantine on April 11th and succeeding days.

COMEDY OF A FLAG

Tricolour Removed and Replaced in Cork

FUNERAL OF CONSTABLE KILLED IN ATTACK

INQUEST ADJOURNED

There is a feeling of extreme tension in Kilmallock following the sensational barracks attack on Friday morning.

20 PERSONS DROWNED

The little Lincolnshire town of Louth, having some 10,000 inhabitants, was visited on Saturday by an appalling disaster.

FOODSTUFFS BACK TO THEIR OWNERS

An all-grades meeting of Dublin railwaymen in the Trades Hall, Capital street, yesterday, the munitions war was discussed.

1,000 PERSONS HOMELESS

During the week four executive members and two organisers had a most successful tour in Ireland, almost all parts of which they had travelled.

BRUTAL MAYO MURDER

Herd Attacked and Beaten to Death

A brutal murder, the outcome of local agrarian trouble, is reported from County Mayo, in which a herd was battered to death on Saturday night.

SHOT FROM A LORRY

Armed Police in Limerick Streets

Maylin Kelly, labourer, living at Blackbog Pike, in the outskirts of the city, was shot through the thigh into on Saturday night.

VILLAGE HELD UP

Empty Barrack and Houses Burned

Armed men entered the village of Louth on Friday night, and, having held up the residents, set fire to the empty police barracks, which was burned to the ground.

UNION COMMANDEERED

Troops Arriving in the South and West

Bullingtons Workhouse (Co. Wicklow) has been taken over by the military authorities in the South and West of Ireland.

HOME FROM WORMWOOD SCRUBS

Messrs. Edwards, Fry, & Co., Ltd., of 11, York street, London, E.C.3, have been ordered to remove the Wormwood Scrubs and were accorded an enthusiastic reception.

War Stores Ordered Off a Train

DUBLIN RAILWAY WORKERS' STAND

"A Fight of the Whole Irish Working Class"

The crisis in connection with the handling of military munitions for Ireland continues. A further development took place at Broadstone on Saturday evening, when railwaymen refused to start the down night mail, until a case, supposed to contain eggs, but stated to contain rifles, was removed.

LABOUR MISREPRESENTED

In connection with the munitions question, they were confronted with a very serious situation from every point of view.

THE TOURIST QUESTION

The "Irish Times" instigated the fact that owing to the action of the railway people there was a great possibility of the tourist trade in Ireland being done away with.

A WORD FOR THE BRITISH WORKER

The only thing that would kill the aspirations of the Irish people was the extermination of the Labour Party in England.

THE MEN AT THE NORTH WALL

Mr. Mueschler, Dublin, who was a member of the deputation to London last week, said he saw the refusal of the railwaymen to Poland before Mr. Thomas.

"EGGS AND GLASS"

Discovery by Railwaymen at Broadstone

Railwaymen at the Broadstone refused to handle munitions tendered for transit on Saturday evening, about 5 p.m., according to their members, a military force of fully-armed soldiers arrived at the station.

GREYS IN THE DERBY

The "Daily Mail," in an article on the Derby week, says—One of the curious facts this year is that among the favourites are two grey horses, though grey has often in the past been regarded as an unlucky colour.

CABINET AND IRELAND

A Cabinet meeting of exceptional importance has been announced for to-day, since the Lobby correspondent of the "London Daily Express" says that Mr. Lloyd George will come to Dublin on Friday, when he will spend the week-end, and it is of great significance that both Lord French and Sir Hamar Greenwood have been called from Ireland in order to attend the meeting.

PARTITION FARE

The political correspondent of the "Morning Post" says—Of the important Bills of the Session only one, Home Rule, has got beyond the second reading, and has advanced some distance through the Committee Stage.

IS PARLIAMENT PLAYED OUT?

Mr. Winston Churchill, Secretary for War, writing in the "Illustrated Sunday Herald," says—"The danger to Parliament played out?"

EXIT THE 13d. STAMP

This is the last day on which the three-halpenny stamp can be used for letters. The twopenny stamp comes in to-morrow.

LIPTON'S MASCOT

The racing flag of Shamrock IV, with which Sir Thomas Lipton is hopeful of bringing back the America Cup is a four-halppenny stamp.

TO-NIGHT'S BIG CONTEST

The "Daily Mail" says—Among the other great sporting events which mark this week is the boxing match to-night between James Higgins, the bantam-weight champion of Great Britain, and Charles Ledoux, a famous French pugilist who is only second in the esteem of his country to Carpentier, the bantam-weight champion of Europe.

SPORTING PROPHECIES

DOWN ROLL MEETING. Spring Life (Man on the Spot). Maiden Hurle—Rory Thrice (apt). Pastured Plate—Duck's Grove. Moira Plate—Garrett. Killalagh Plate—Paddy.

SPRINGER HUNT MEETING

Shirley (Latent from the Coast)—Munkplash, Brown Stud; Honey, Cragg King; Earwood, Nubian; Knowle, Sunley; Mousley, Yvonne; and Tully, Indian Mel.

SPRING LIFE (MAN ON THE SPOT)

Maiden Hurle—Rory Thrice (apt). Pastured Plate—Duck's Grove. Moira Plate—Garrett. Killalagh Plate—Paddy. Donnelly Plate—Old Padstow. Donnelly Plate—Lady Isaac. Pastured Plate—Zeon.

SPRINGER HUNT MEETING

Shirley (Latent from the Coast)—Munkplash, Brown Stud; Honey, Cragg King; Earwood, Nubian; Knowle, Sunley; Mousley, Yvonne; and Tully, Indian Mel.

"EGGS AND GLASS"

Discovery by Railwaymen at Broadstone. Railwaymen at the Broadstone refused to handle munitions tendered for transit on Saturday evening, about 5 p.m., according to their members, a military force of fully-armed soldiers arrived at the station.

(Continued on Page 6, Column 1.)