ONE FAVOURITE.

BACKERS BEATEN AT LEWES.

A 20 TO 1 CHANCE SCORES.

Backers at Lewes yesterday favoured the layers, who had what is now known as "Ireland's luck." Dacey's mare, well ridden by Mr. Mick Beasley, got off a 20-1 chance in the Open Welter. It was not by any means a great day's racing, but the large Lewesday crowd enjoyed the sport, despite the fact that only one favourite scored.

A capital race, contested from the Lewes Handicap day, was that for the Tower Selling Plate, which was won by Mr. Cradock's Hurstwood Lad, who commended Mr. Cradock for the defeat of Hurstwood in the last event yesterday.

A CLEVER JOCKEY SCORER.

In a field of three Panoply was favourite for the opening event, and after a struggle with Vertigo, carrying Joe Beasley's colours, the favourite got home. The Selling Plate was over the unusual distance of 1½ miles, and it was won by Succession, who came away in the straight, finishing the lead to The Great Lady, who was the favourite in the betting to odds on. There was an open market on the Castle Selling Plate, and one of the second division ever had a chance with it. The event proved Glenroe. The winner is a son of Obversely, who was a well-known performer in Ireland, and young Morgan is connected with the famous Waterford family of jockeys, of whom "Frank" I see, distinguished himself in the Gateway Plate.

A FAMOUS RACE.

The closest finish on record was in the Astley Stakes of 1880, three heats (lasting 1½ hours) two others also don't beat. A head behind. With it in the belt to-day is the 40th anniversary, so were treated to a finish in keeping with tradition, as the outsider Goldfinder got up on the post to beat Hasty Match by a head. The favourite Jackboy, on whom £1 was laid, was crossed at the start and put out of the race. Another who was Prospector, whose jockey, are inevitably smart.

Open welter races are most certain to be contested in the event of their coming early in a day or they and Lewes Race course seem to be Mr. Pilton's hurdle handicap, in which all have a chance. Decoy, favourite for the Ira Waterloo Handicap, was outpaced by Vivien, and another rap disappointing. Be keen hopes that Hurdle would equal the showing he made at Queen's Race, but the Maufon mare failed to catch Queen's Folly, who, it is interesting to recall, scored here on her first appearance as a juvenile.

Mr. Luke Miley, whose death is announced from Courtmacsherry, New Zealand, was a notable figure in Irish racing circles many years ago, and rode his own horses at Punchestown and other meetings. Punchestown he trialled alone in a run of the Boyne years ago after pounding some of the best Louth Hounds. He was a nephew of Mr. Miley, riders in the county. Meldon Defeats M'Crea at Bray.

The feature of yesterday's play in the championship events at Bray was the defeat of the close champion, E. D. M'Crea, by L. A. Meldon by 2 straight sets—6-4 and 7-5. Meldon's driving was excellent, and he brought off some remarkably good shots at the net. M'Crea was scarcely in his best form, and lost several aces as the result of a faulty service.

V. Miley had a walk-over in the semi-final round. L. A. Meldon and A. P. Barry, who are about the strongest pair in the doubles, had an easy victory over A. J. Lane and M. Toppin, and Major Jackson and E. D. M'Crea likewise survived the day. The weather yesterday was fine but cold, and the courts were in fine condition. Details:—
