LORD MAYOR GETS LITTLE SLEEP.

PROSTRATION NOT SO GREAT.

EXTREME WEAKNESS

ENGLISH CAMPAIGN OF unconscious, he could not be fed without PRESS CALUMNY

SURREPTITIOUS FEEDING IMPUTATIONS.

If the Lord Mayor of Cork lives N. Sheridan, C.C.P., Co. Louth, acknowtill 3 p.m. to-day he will enter ledging the county magistrates' call for the release of Lord on his fortieth day of complete Mayor MacSwiney abstinence from bodily food.

On the night of Saturday-Sunday his and dem anding lordship had between 3 and 4 Dominion Home hours' sleep, which was not so can hold out no broken as usual, and yesterday hope of a reversal the prostration appeared not to be the Government in quite so great as before, but he the case of the still suffered great pain and weak- Lord Mayor of

On Saturday his condition, following ernment is desirous a practically sleepless night, ap- | fullest possible . Sir Hamar Greenwood. peared more grave than ever it measurs of selfhad been previously.

MacSwiney is being fed surreptitiously by his relatives and by CHEERLESS INFORMATION. his chaplain were more pronounced and more malignant certain English Sunday papers yesterday than ever before. Once again the denial has to be made the Lord Mayor. that ne has received no food whatever for the past 39 dayssave only spiritual food at the hands of Father Dominic

REFRESHING SLEEP

ENTERING FORTIETH DAY OF ABSTINENCE.

The Lord Mayor of Cork slept for taken to have that done. about three hours on Saturday night, and yesterday, although still very weak and suffering severe pain, he was not quite so prostrate and exhausted | UNCRASING PRAYERS OF IRELAND as on the previous day, telegraphed | Lord Mayor MacSwiney and his fellowthe special reporter of the " Irish in- sufferers were prayed for throughout the

him for some hours yesterday, and on Amongst Masses specially offered up for them in Dublin district were those at the leaving the prison at 5 o'clock she said request of the bodies named:his condition was practically un. | Pro-Cathedral-Messrs, Arnott's employee to the changed, and he was extremely weak. | number of 800, including buyers, superintendents. | clerks, assistants, factory hands, etc., assembled Miss Mary and Miss Annie MacSwiney in Henry St. and marched to the church, and again visited the Lord Mayor, and suspended meantime; Messrs, Hampton, Leedom's efforts of Father Carroll, C.C., Grenagh, dress. He assured his visitors he had not which is usually indulged in during the other seriously wounded. while several stayed with him for several hours. He employes. St. Francis Xavisr's, Gardiner St.— who has taken a strong interest in Kenny's been on the Eyre Sq. delivery that morning, night in the city.

Who has taken a strong interest in Kenny's been on the Eyre Sq. delivery that morning, night in the city.

Onse, and who has been a constant visitor and offered to take them to the house of it is stated the was still conscious, but very weak.

with fewer interruptions than had recently of residents of Sitric and Mount Temple Roads, been troubling him, until nearly 3 a.m. followed by Rosary; residents of Manor Place; can citizenship. yesterday. Those 31 hours gave him a tenants of Artisans Dwellings, Arbour Hill. sorely-needed rest and cased his pains and

NOT SO PROSTRATE.

í St. Írish

#.D3

Rev. Pet-

rated

The :

He was consequently not so prostrate. IN THE PROVINCES. His shoulder pained him most, but the headache and the pain in his limbs were tive of the workers, assisted at the Mass cele- C.C. :not so sever for some time after the sleep. 9.15 last night, informed our representative Mass celebrated by Father Barry, C.C., the the house and in the room of the cottage especially in the right shoulder and right curran, Leix-The employes of Wolfhill Collerles cartridges. side of the body. The only conversation and Volunteers present in large numbers and he had had with his lordship was a question by the Lord Mayor for the latest news of the boys in Cork Jail. He gave his PROTESTS AND SYMPATHY Holy Communion yesterday morning. prison chapel yesterday, and amongst those lution on the motion of An tAthair Tomas attending it were the two Republican pri- do Bhall, C.C., seconded by, Domhnall og soners, Michael Carroll and Charles Mur () Cerliachain, Deputy Lofd Mayor of ray, from Cork, both of whom received and Cork :offered their Holy Communion intention !for the Lord Mayor and his fellow-sufferers on hunger-strike.

Father Dominic added that the Lord Mayor's condition last night did not seem to have changed materially since the morning. The headache and also the pains in the big shoulder and side as well as in the little sufferers: "who were living on the Blood of his shoulder and side, as well as in the Our Saviour during the past 40 days." Bray limbs, continued, however, to give him coneiderable trouble. VILE IMPUTATIONS.

Certain English Sunday newspapers were tests and adjournments, except for urgent business again in full cry yesterday in the diabolical Guardians, Castlerahan R.D.C., etc. attempt to discredit the painful ordeal of the Lord Mayor. Those newspapers accept ITEMS OF THE STRUGGLE

DE VALERA AND MACSWINEY.

" England's brute force may manacle MacSwiney's body, but his spirit will triumph over that force and make Ireland's cause triumphant.

"If you could but only know the devotion between him and his noble, faithful, loving wife, you would understand how hard the parting must be. But I know MacSwiney, and I know that he will die gladly rather than surrender his rights.

"The beginning of the big struggle has come. Lloyd George has challenged us. We have accepted." -Do Valera, at Lexington, New York has not been fed by any of the prison doctors must have concluded that death shall have or nurses, but yesterday they charged that claimed its victim ere I can show him the the afflicted relatives of the prisoner- fallacy of his belated assertions. London was placarded yesterday with yielding to the voice of all nations for his that truce, that there would be no shooting patient and his chaplain with surreptitionaly feeding him. posters containing vile imputations that release from a political point of view, the Lord Mayor's hunger-strike was prac- while I have argued on the side of mercy. tiently mere bluff, and that he and those To condemn a man to death for a political ellowed to visit him were humbugs. Alle offence shows neither justice nor wisdom, gutions of this peculiarly malignant kind, but rather a spleenetic and tyrannical proters are only part of the hideous torture and in seeking a means to dispose of the hear the word of God in this matter, He deliberately indicted to lacerate the feel- opposition pays but scant attention to the may strike you sooner or later, because ings of the helpless prisoner and his an- voice of conscience. Denials and contradictions are generally to assume the role of jailer over the Lord | ised later on. I don't care who they are ignored or suppressed by the types of Eng- Mayor, and thus assert that his release I am making no distinction at all; they lish newspapers engaged in this campaign would subvert discipline. He must have that take the sword shall perish by the of calumny. Their sympathy and sense of given his opinion from motives of bias, as sword. How can those merit justice who have been exhausted recently in finding St. Joan of Arc and Nurse Cavell.

evening, again emphatically repudiated the sungulated the sungulations. "As a matter of fact," said Sean, "the doctor and the Governor of the prison both unsed me sisters to the fact of present an analysis of present and the Governor of the present an analysis of present an analysis of present and provided to the student of p prison both urged my sisters to try to prevail upon the Lord Mayor to take food, legro; but they refused to do anything of League of Nations if Germany continues to be for arms. That practice served we continue and anything of League of Nations if Germany continues to be for arms. That practice served we continue any series and anything of League of Nations if Germany continues to be for arms. That practice served we continue any series and anything of League of Nations if Germany continues to be for arms. That practice served we continue any series and anything of League of Nations if Germany continues to be for arms. the kind." Pather Dominic said :- " I am doing all pany with the League

DEVELOPMENTS IN CORK tin my power to give him spiritual food and spiritual strength. But, as for corporal food, I am not supplying the Lord Mayor with it, either surreptitiously or openly. as it is neither my province nor my duty. "I am perfectly satisfied that the Lord

CAN HOLD OUT NO HOPE

food secretly from no one while maintaining a hunger-strike. As he has not been GREENWOOD'S WORD AND With regard to Joseph Kenny, one of THE DEED.

Eir H. Greenwood, in a letter to Mr. A political prisoners, Cork. I can assure you that the Gov-

his knowledge."

government to the trish people, and welcome the expression of moderate opinions The vile insinuation that Lord Mayor directed to a settlement of the present unfortunate state of affairs."

Inquiries by the special representative of the "Irish Independent" at Brixton on Saturday elicited only the cheerless infor- Murphy suffering from cold, due mation that the Home Office authorities weakened circulation. "Their bodies, appeared to be determined not to release she said, "are clammy and icy, and J. was much shaken by ner experience. About a some distance up the road. There were the Lord Mayor.

The rumbur was current, however, though no direct authority can be quoted on his back, and who has had little sleep for it, that the Home Office intend wait- for the past week, expressed the hope that tall men came in. One man presented a Burberry coats. and then remove him to die in a private or other civilian hospital.

Sean MacSwiney asked the prison doctor if he would allow him to get the opinion of au independent physician concerning the condition of the Lord Mayor. The doctor said that he would not object provided per- AN mission was first obtained from the Home Office. It was understood that steps were dependent" at Brixton late last night. length and breadth of Ireland yesterday at The Lady Mayoress remained with innumerable Masses by millions of people.

PETITIONS TO HEAVEN.

congregation of the women of the parish recited the Rosery.

Athy-Huge congregation, specially representabrated by Canon Mackey, P.P., V.F. Carrig (Birr), at instance of the parishioners. Nanaghreceiving Holy Communion.

The Coiste Gnotha of the Gaelic League Father Dominic celebrated Mass in the unanimously adopted the following reso-

Go contribuid in jul do ar combibalia nasa

Tolrdbealbhach mac Suibhne agus do na loachraidhe eile ata ag fullaing ocrais i gCarcar Chor-caigha, meid ar measa ortha fein agus ar an iodhbart ata aca dha dheunamh diobh fein ar U.D.C. adjourned, and protested against the inhuman, callous, and peculiarly British treatment of the Lord Mayor in Brixton and of the untried prisoners in Cork; also against the canting of Cabi-net Ministers of Limehouse and Belfast fame. Proby Athy U.D.C., Wexlerd Corporation, Tipperary

"WE HAVE ACCEPTED." So effective has been the work of leaders since the first passion of revolt aroused by the prospective fate of the hunger-strikers inrestened an outbreak, that there is now little fear of sections of the Republican Army in Cork or elsewhere get ting out of hand."—"Sunday Chronicle." A correspondent calling attention to statements i declares that Lord Mayor Machwiney is granted all the privileges of political prisoners, and that everycrilent food," the statement adds, "suitable to his enfectled condition, is kept constantly by his bed-side, and his nurses have done their best to induce [Note.-No complaint has been made as to the conrelatives have paid glowing tributes to the care of the doctors and nurses. The demend is for his

R.I.C. AND LORD MAYOR.

To the Editor "Irish Independent." Sir-I see "A Constable in Armagh" has made an attempt to dishearten me in my advocacy of the release of the Lord Mayor it favour of Lloyd George's obstinacy in the Gospel of Christ, for a continuance of concocted interviews, and anonymous let- pensity of mind which fears opposition It is not logical for "Armagh Constable"

he ought to know, and should remember, show no mercy? that a policeman's duty does not consist of HIS GRACE'S PRAYER dictating the length of incarceration, nor

He evidently has missed his subject when he God muy, for the sake of all, strike any. The Lady Mayoress and the Misses Mac- enters into an elaboration of the gallantry and enters the precept of charity by comradeship of the Black and Tana, whose valorous one who violates the precept of charity by viewed by our special representative last rent to the most superficial mind and shall remain the rent to the most superficial mind and shall remain the light of or injury.

that product the product of the product of the least of the least of the politic of the politic

FOR LIFE.

SERIOUS ALLEGATIONS BY MRS. KENNY.

Mayor is a man of honour, and would take The eleven hunger-strikers in Cork Jail who will at 3 p.m. have concluded a record fast from all food of six complete weeks' duration, were, it was accertained by the special reporter of the "Irish Independent" in Oork last night, still battling for life.

> the hunger-strikers, it is stated that documents just received establish the fact that he is an American citizen.

N CRITICAL STATE. On inquiry at the prison it was learned that Sean Hennessy continues in the most dangerous state, and is for the greater part of the time unconscious. Michael Bourke is another whose condition is causing much anxiety. Twice within a short period yes terday he collapsed All the others are markedly weaker, and the condition of Jos-Murphy, Christopher Upton, and Jos. Kenny is reported critical.

When seen at the prison yesterday the wo Home Office doctors said they believed the end would come unexpectedly, but rerained from expressing any opinion as to how long more they considered the men could hold out. After visiting all the prisoners on Sat.

night an hospital nurse told me she found Sean Hennessy, the Limerick boy, living, but no more: his breathing was scarcely BODIES CLAMMY AND ICY.

The nurse found Chris. Upton and Joseph Michael Bourke, who can now only lied ing until their prisoner is in extremis, the end was near. Michael O'Reilly also revolver. At first she thought they were CAME ON MOTOR LORRY. to release thom from their agony. also from sleeplessness.

AMERICAN CITIZEN WHAT MRS. KENNY SWEARS

telegram to the Archbishop of Canter-" Request your intercession for the immediate release of hunger-strikers, who have now fasted for the forty days and the forty nights. Such endurance has never been surpassed by mortal man. Would not the Premier consider this suffi-

in nearly st. and marched to the church, and Joseph Kenny, of Grenagh, due to the presence demanded before he had time to absence of the indiscriminate shooting civilian being shot dead and at least one after Mass back to work, business having been Took of Wather Carroll CO. Carrol onse, and who has been a constant visitor and offered to take them to the house of It is stated the raiders called at the being fired at them. Eventually the men Our Lady of Dolours, Dolphin's Barn.—At re- to him in the prison. On learning that his brother. When Lally's little daugh- lodgings of a fourth young lady, but not were captured and placed in the lorries, Sean MacSwiney, who watched during quest of women of Rialto; subsequent to the Mass Kenny spent a considerable time in America | ter said "Daddy, I will come too," one of finding her there they motored to her Sean macswiney, who watched during a collection was taken for the Prisoners' Dependent of the night by his brother's bedside, said dents' Fund. University Church, Stephen's Green municated with the United States authorities to sleep at the that the Lord Mayor went to sleep at __ Staff of Mesers. Murphy, Lower Baggot St. St. ties, and has now received documents which, about 11.30 p.m. on Saturday, and slept, Mary of the Angels, Church St.-Mass at inctance it is definitely stated, establish his Ameri-

> Whitefriar St. (O.C.C.)—Entire stoff of Messrs. State. For health reasons he was obliged to Gorevan Bros., Camden St. 3t. James's-Large return to Ireland. IMPORTANT DECLARATION.

tion was made yesterday by Mrs. Kenny, his wife, witnessed by Rev. T. J. Carroll,

"I remember the night the military came l'ather Dominic, on leaving the prison at Canon McMahon, P.P., V.G., presided at a special and arrested my husband. They searched that the Lord Mayor was then suffering church being packed; public amusements sus- in a little hag I kept for repairing the great pain still in his head and limbs, and pended on account of prisoners' condition. Lugge children's clothes they said they found the cartridges into the bag. "There is a view from the stairs into told them so and so did my husband, who said this stuff was never in the house before now.

my husband and there was never a service rifie in our house. I swear this statement is true."

Mr. Kenny is charged with having been in possession of a service rifle and revolver and the only policy at present is one of passed through the bedroom upstairs and restraint. Give no handle to anyone," penetrated the ceiling. said Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, preaching GRENADE OR BULLET. in Tuam Cathedral yesterday.

"THE GOSPEL OF THE dows.

ARCHBISHOP & SHOOTING

out he must observe the great Command- shop, apparently by a bomb or hand grenment of Christ-Love of God and Love of ade, which damaged the cashier's desk, shooting,, counter-shooting, or raiding people's houses," proceeded the Archcharity. Revenge on the innocent, ter- Bartly O'Beirne, tuberculosis medical offirorising women and children were terrible cer, is also commandeered. Dr. O'Beirne Donkeys shot. violations of charity. Sending around murder notices was also an awful violation; another was boycotting, which might be a very serious violation. Organised boycott was a very dangerous weapon. AGAIN CALLS FOR TRUCE.

Recalling that it was his duty some Cork. Perhaps as he sees no sign of re- months ago to refer to some violations of leasing the brave and heroic prisoner, he charity in that neighbourhood, and that he then called for a truce of God, Dr. Gilmartin said so far as he knew there was no criminal shot fired since in the locality It is obvious that he argues his point Again he called, in the name of God and of pened in the town on Saturday night, threatening lives-and ne raids on houses. "lf." his Grace went on, "you don't Those who terrorise people will be terror

" | pray solemnly that the justice of perse quietly to your homes and not mind any an Eastern Congress at Baku, Zinovieff de- says the Milan correspondent of the "Daily carly foremoon until late at night." Chronicle" (quoted by special arrangement.) The "Echo de Paris" (according to the Paris | Strong condemnation of raiding for arms was clared a holy war against Imperialism. correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph") states expressed by Very Rev. P. O'Connell, P.P., V.S., Reuter learns from the Contebill in the two churches learns from the Contebility in the churches learns from the churches learns from

TRYING ORDEAL OF Abbeygate St. The Lallys are sons of a Crimean veteran, one of whose sons corve in the South African and the late war, names of the men who cut Miss Baker's

Subsequent events are described by the

Miss Gertie Madden, St. Brendan's Tee.,

plays the piano in the Empire Theatre orchestra. When interviowed, she said she opened the door. The men asked for "Miss

They held revolvers to her and shouted

"Hands up?" They brought her outside

Outside one of them said it would be all

Miss Margaret M. Bruderick, Prospect

GIRL'S TRYING EXPERIENCE.

YOUNG WOMAN while a second serving in the late war was wounded 17 times. Lally was taken outside, and at the re-HAIR CUT OFF volver point he was called on to give the

MIDNIGHT REPRISALS FOLLOW.

Galway was the scene of a series of most extraordinary outrages was reading in the kitchen, about 10.45 p.m., when a knock came and her mother during the week-end, the victims being a number of young Madden," and she went out.

On Saturday morning Miss Evelyn Baker, Baker's Hotel, Eyre Sq., was cet upon by masked men in the hall of the hotel and her hair right if she kept quiet. Four or fire of them closed cound her and rapidly out off was cropped close. Miss Baker gave evidence at the recent mili- circumstances. They spoke with English accents, but she was too confused to notice tary inquiry into the death Const. Krumm, who had stayed at "USED TO THIS SORT OF THING." the hotel. Saturday night during Curiew Hill, who is not yet 20, told her story formed men, apparently by way of reprisal, visited the houses of 3 other young ladies and cut off was visited. Miss Broderick's father went their hair. The raiders had previously called on two local postmen and demanded the names of the men who attacked Miss Baker, which the postmen were unable to give.

EARLY MORNING RAID.

was much shaken by her experience. About towards two motor lorries that were standpostman, and had just turned round when be in uniform, but were disguised with the folding doors were flung open and 6 slouch hats, black and white masks, and going to school.

hours, a party of masked uni- laughingly, her mother remarking: "We are used to this sort of thing now. and Maggie went through It like a brick. It was almost II o'clock when the house to the door, and the raiders asked for her.

terrified Inside.

the uniforms they wore.

give her tirse to dress, as she was in bed They would not give her time, and she went down in her nightdress, taking a coat from the hallstand. They took her outside treated her gently, but cropped her hair close, using an electric torch to give them One of them remarked, with an English accent: "What lovely locks she's got."

She shouted down, and asked if they would heiss Baker, who is 22, when interviewed, They then said good-night, and went off expressed the wish that death might come going upstairs to the police who were stay- Miss Margt. Turke, a weaver in the tional affair on the Dublin mouning in the house, but instead they pulled Galway Woollen Mills, lives with her tains yesterday, when military, ac- the streets at 11 p.m., and afterwards The boy, John Power, was suffering much her into the middle of the hall. Her hair father, mother, and family on College Rd. companied by "Black and Tan" raided the house of Mr. J. O'Neill, R.D.C. while a man behind cut off the plait with She was in a state of nervous prostration, while a man behind cut off the plait with She was in a state of nervous prostration, police, surprised a body of civilians. Mr. J. Kelly, an ex-hunger-striker, was a single clip. She was too terrified to cry and will not be able to resume work for police, surprised a body of civilians.

man with the revolver had also a razor, as along, a motor lorry coming from the city near Stackstown—in a dozen motor lorries. Mr. J. Carroll, surveyor, received special if it was intended to shave her head. She drew up outside their cottage. Admission accompanied by an armoured car and mili- attention. added that she had long hair down to her was demanded, and when the mother, an tary motor cyclists. Four of the lorries Mr. Harold Barry has sent the following waist. She stooped to pick up her hair, aged woman, opened the door, a number of proceeded through Dundrum, and the stores and the residence of the manager, waist. She stooped to pick up her hair, aged woman, opened the door, a number of proceeded introduction building the state of collapse in the half masked men dashed into the kitchen, and others approached by different routes from Guardians, were searched by military and when found by her little sister who was and took Miss Turke from the adjoining the city. room. They brought her into the road in They converged on the place at about police. her night attire. The mother pleaded the same time and came upon a number draper, was searched during Curiew hours on Thurs. REMARKABLE SEQUEL.

Note the second of the s of a party or parties of men carrying rehead of long hair was shorn before she was men were engaged in drilling, but as to head of long hair was shorn before she was volvers and electric torches, wearing black permitted to return to the house. All the this there seems to be some doubt. and white masks, slouch hats, and uniforms. ruiders had revolvers, but they did not BODY WHEELED TO A LORRY.

While in America he lived in Mortana EXTRAORDINARY OCCURRENCES

HOUSES BOMBEDOR BURNED RIFLE FIRING.

Galway the vicinity of Eyre Square was " I was on the stairs. I saw them put thrown into a state of terror by rifla fire, telegraphs our Galway correspondent. About 11 o'clock a motor lorry passed opposite the National Bank. Almost immediately shots rang out, and "No other charge was preferred against | these were followed by two explosions. Subsequently the lorry drove along Wil-for about ten minutes.

Two holes were bored in the floor of the office, apparently by bombs thrown through occurred, and the roof fell in. Miss Fire was returned by the police, who were unthe window.

Pieces of metal and brass were found in | RELEASED PRISONER FIRED ON. The shattered window bears evidence of a "We are living in a very terrible time, number of bullet marks, and one bullet

The shop window of Mr. Patrick Moy-

Mr. Moylette says he has just received "It is the gospel of the devil to be 24 hours' notice from the police to vacate his private residence, The Retreat, at Salt-

Maritimo, Salthill, the residence of Dr. got until Tuesday next to leave the build- At Bangor Erris two asses trespassing on ing, which he only purchased recently. The bedroom occupied by Mr. Tom secretary of the local Drapers' Assistants' veterinary surgeon.

The following important sworn declara- IN A STATE OF TERROR | Association, was searched by a policemen. HOUSES BURNED DOWN. .

their night attire. Soon a loud explosion | bering 35 men. was heard, and the house was observed to In the course of the round up two men were shot Mr. Walsh, who is landlord of the scal were found in his possession. Forty men our law dispensary and of the solies had been captured, and bombs, rifles and revolver munihe on fire. It was burned to the ground. poor law dispensary, and of the police bar- tions and a tent were seized. racks adjoining, which was destroyed early "When they charged my husband I round the square, and came to a standstill this year, is well known in coursing circles. Another account states that Mr. Walsh did not reside on the premises.

> drapery establishment, in the same village. was similarly destroyed. liamsgate St., and seven or eight further The residence at Lackelly, between Emly Abbeyfeale at 11 p.m. on Saturday, accord- and masked men and the mail bags seized. When shots were discharged. The sheeting lasted and Galbally, of Daniel Maloney, who has ing to a P.A. message, Const. Mahony conveying the mails from Cullen to Millstraet for In the morning it was discovered that the also burned down. Uniformed men visited being shot dead. Two other members of was beld up and some letters were taken. office of Mr. Louis E. O'Dea, solicitor, had the house, of which the only occupants the patrol, the head constable and a conbeen bombed, and that bullets had been were Miss Maloney, sister of the wanted stable, were wounded. A large force of fired through the office and bedroom win- man, and a youth in their employment, military and constabulary proceeded yes-The youth was taken into custody, but shortly afterwards released, and the warch ambushparty left. Shortly afterwards the fre in Cathedrel place at 9 p.m. bn the 16.9"20. Maloney and the youth escaped injury.

"If another was shot what would happen?" was the query painted on the Limerick Town Hall. In other places there were similar inscriptions. "Remember, Hartney," was another warning. Hartney's house was blown up.

were resumed in Athlone. In the early also taken. Two sons of Mrs. Carroll, a certain time, walked away of this nature in hours of Sunday morning, in the work- High St., were arrested after a search, Dublin. house area, occupied by military, and adjoining the two lines of railway, there was considerable rifle firing, but, so far as can be ascertained, no casualties.

vacated and burned police barracks were shot. The The bedroom occupied by Mr. Tom ported to a military captain that his denkey had Nolan, who has recently opened a drapery been stabled. Investigation showed that the denkey been stabled. Investigation showed that the denkey approached a sentry during the night. By the instruction of the officer the animal was treated by a

ANOTHER WEEK-END OF SENSATIONS

Scarcely a week-end passes latterly in Ircland without its crop of sensations. Those this week-end included :--Military surprise civilians on the Dublin Mountains. One civilian shot dead, another wounded, and 40 arrested.

Policeman shot dead and 2 others wounded in Abbevience. in Galway, four young ladies had their hair cut off, one in the early morning, and the others by way of reprisal during Curfew hours. The burning of a house in Ballylanders and one near Emly; the bombing of a house in Galway, and rifle firing there, as well as in Athlone.

Devous, killed.

THE EASTERN CRISIS. SOVIETS' THREAT AGAINST

> ENGLAND. (Exchange Co. Cablegram.)

Paris, Saturday. A wireless message from Tchitcherin to R.G.A. wounded; and Capt. G. H. Salmon, 6th tain purpose is," he added. "proclaimed. There must not complain if a great movement The young Grand Duchess Maria Adelaide of Reuter learns from "a well-informed and Pan-Islamic representatives. in Mesopotamia include :- L.Cpl. M. Lynch, Tank C., and Ghaners T. Plunkett and A. W. Hilliard.

Grand Duritiess Becomes a Nuti.

STILL BATTLING GALWAYREIGN OF TERROR FORTY ARRESTS ON MOUNTAINS.

DUBLIN.

POLICEMAN SHOT ABBEYFEALE.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS THE COUNTRY.

and closed the door, leaving her mother One man was shot dead and other seriously wounded military who surprised a party of men on the Dublin mountains yesterday.

It is alleged the men were drilling, and employment of T. M'Carthy, cycle and when they attempted to escape | motor works, was personally searched. | Wexford.—The residence of Mr. L. Cranthe military fired. About 40 of nitch, Post Office linesman, was raided by the civilians were arrested. The military. Castle report states that muni- SEDITIOUS TURNIP SEED. tions and a tent were seized.

police patrol was ambushed near hinch, Ashford, took away 2 small Repubtwo others being wounded.

aids and arrests by the military and Carrigallen, were raided. Both are memraids for arms by civilians continue throughout the country, and again many bags of mails have been seized by armed men.

MAN'S DEATH SCENE ON A MOUNTAIN

At least one death and the capture of 40 civilians resulted from a sensaminutes. The men searched all the police Tears came to her eyes as she and her able last night the military and police were scriptions were tarred on the houses of saying they would be back again. The night, after the cavalry paired had passed conveyed to the scene—a remote locality, prominent Sinn Feiners. The residence of

An important disclosure was made last St. Nicholas St., was first visited. Therein While these incidents were in progress On observing the military the men at night in connection with the prisoner was loud knocking on his door and his on Saturday night, there was an entire once scattered, and the soldiers fired, one others had miraculous escapes, many shots while a man named Parker, who lives on Friday morning at Limerick were reparently dead, was wheeled to one of the forries in a barrow. Having secured their is not known if any letters were detained. prisoners, the military returned to the city To some of the letters was attached an brough Rathfarnham, the prisoners cheer- intimation that they had been examined the Bridewell. OFFICIAL VERSION. A report issued by Dublin Castle states up between Traise and Rathmore on Sat. A party of uniformed men entered the that a company of the I.R.A. which is by armed men, who removed one of the house of Mr. John Walsh, junr., Bally- alleged to have been in the habit of meet- rails and put a red signal against the house of Mr. John Walsh, junr., Bally- ing on Sun, mornings on the slopes of the train. The mail from Rathmore was taken. Indeers, at 1.45 a.m., and at the muzzle of Dublin mountains for rifle, revolver, and The mail car to Tulla was held up out the revolver ordered himself and his family bombing practice, was surrounded on side Limerick by a party of armed men, During Curiew hours last Friday night in out of bed. They fled from the house in Larch Hill by forces of the Crown num-

Recently Mr. T. Crowley's extensive FATAL LIMERICK AMBUSH up by armed men who took the mails. police patrol was ambushed near terday from Limerick to the scene of the land Row Station on 14th ult., 100 have been returned to the addressees. The Post Office

WHOLESALE ARRESTS

TURNIP SEED SEIZED Tuam.-Nine men were arrested by the military in Tuam on Sat. night and re- up by the footpath to talk to a young lady. his Grace declared, every man had a right to his political views, but in carrying them to his political views, but in carrying them out dead. His nouse was searched volvers. The head boots, who showed the Be was then told to get off the motor cycle, and one of the men mounted it and rods off.

On Saturday night searches for arms arrested. Some drink, it is alleged, was The other men, having warned him not to move for den, Bessbrook, and Geo. M'Cambridge, Newry shop assistant, were arrested by police and military on suspicion of being implicated in recent raids for arms. This makes a total of 8 arrests in connection with the raids.

MILITARY COUP NEAR | which included the bedroom of Mrs. Once Newry .- M. Creggan and Thos. M'Orud-

Donegal,-Messrs, H. Lenaghan, Munterneese, Mountcharles, and Andrew Higginbotham, Tullyvoose, were arrested on Friday morning.

TAKEN TO THE CURRAGH. Athy.-Wm. Nolan, St. Michael's Tce., was arrested and removed, presumably to the Curragh, by military who had searched

Beimuliet.—A man named Moran, from Shraigh, who, it is alleged, had a revolver, Charleville.—The residence of Mr. M. Motherway, R.D.C., was raided by military, who took away receipts for money received in connection with Dail Eireann Bonds. The business premises of Messra. Jos. and

Co. Wicklow.-Soldiers who raided the residence of Mr. MacDonnell, Ballina-

Abbeyfeale on Saturday night, one lican flags and a bag of turnip seed, which policeman being shot dead and it is presumed was taken to be powder and Co. Leitrim.—The residences of Messra. Reynolds, Aughavas, and J. Kenny, bers of Mohill R.D.C. the minute book of which body was recently soized by mili-Thurles.—Several shots were heard on Friday Later, at midnight, military and police visited the residence of Mr. C. Culhane. U.D.C., and asked for the latter. but he was not in. All pedestrians, including the mail car driver, were held up. Some railwaymen going to work up Friar St. were turned back home. On Friday night military and police unsuccessfully searched for arms at Mr. J. Scott's,

EX-HUNGER-STRIKER VISITED.

Thomastown.—Military and police cleared

Geskstown.-A detachment of the King's Royal fles arrived in Cookstown on Fri., and took possesion of the vacant workhouse. Only that this building was available, the people feared that private houses would have been commandeered. DOUBLE CENSORSHIP

MANY MORE MAIL RAIDS Some of the mails seized by the military turned to the P.O. on Friday evening, and the remainder on Saturday morning. It ing and waving their hats as they passed by the military authorities; while on the through the village. They were lodged in back of a few, evidently as a result of a previous hold-up, was the stamp "Passed

The mail train from Mallow was held who carried off the mails. Limerick police left in pursuit of the raiders. Mail cars to Ballinamall and Mullinahone were held up outside Clonmel and all the mails taken. The rural mail car-deprived of his mails. Some letters are being delivered in Clonmel marked "Censored by the I.R.A." While eyeling from Freemount to Mil ford on Thurs, night the postman was held The driver of the mail car between Kells and rier was also held up near the town and

DARING DUBLIN COUP

authorities refuse to give any information regard-

DISPATCH RIDER SURPRISED At 7.30 p.m. on Saturday a military motor orclist dispatch rider was held up by armed men at Charleville Av., North Strand Rd. The cyclist, it appears, slowed Joseph Clanchy, Kilkishen, Co. Clare, re- moved to Annagh police barrack. In Mrs. when 3 men with revolvers confronted him. Saying charity transcends all things, lette, wholesale and retail grocer, was cently released from Wormwood Scrubbs, Gay's hotel 4 young men at the bar were One held a revolver to his breast and

ENGLISH EX-CONVICT AND SINN FEIN.

HURRIED EXIT FROM IRELAND

OMINOUS SILENCE OF BRITISH PRESS.

With the exception of three English newspapers-the "Daily News," the "Daily Herald." and the "Sunday Times"-there he was described as a man of many aliases, is an ominous silence in the leading Bri- but he was identified by a white mark on tish newspapers regarding the English ex- the back of his head. He was charged in convict who was so dramatically unmasked Athlone with having got £50 by false preby Mr. A. Griffith, T.D., on Thurs. night. tences from a Tuam licensed trader through The only attempt at a denial by the an advertisement in the paper. At an ad-British Government has been the statement dress in Enniskillen he advertised stout by the "Daily Sketch" that the Trish Office for sale, stipulating that the money should and Scotland Yard disclaim any knowledge be sent in advance. He generally managed of the man. No disclaimer, however, has to get into the good graces of his landlords. come from either Dublin Castle or the mili- and when he got his cheque he would draw tary headquarters, and, in any case, it will the money from the bank on the strength is asserted, have suffered heavy casualties who was sentenced to 5 years' penal serviwithout obtaining any concrete result. tude at the Belfast Assizes on December & The garrisons at Kufa, Hillah, and Sam- 1918, was in a position to approach Mr. awah are temporarily isolated. Discontent Griffith last week with certain proposals. has been funned into an anti-British spirit | There has been no report of an escape from by the propaganda of Syrian, Turkish, Maryborough Gaol since the ex-convict was incarcerated, and it is stated that he actu-According to the War Office, the casualties ally only served 9 months of his sentence. So seared was the ex-convict when Mr Griffith, ordered him to leave Ireland on Thursday night that he left the country without taking his bag from the hotel, near Mr. H. Burke, of M'Teigue and Co., the military headquarters, Parkgate, where Tuam, was taken from his bed on Saturday. he had been staying. He gave the impres night and accused of having refused to difficult to explain away how a man lef the landiorus recommendation.

charge of obtaining money under false pretences, the ex-convict endeavoured to show that the person named in the warrant was a brother, who was a canteen inspector, that he himself had been employed in munition works in Dublin. He also told the Head-Constable that he had great experience in the Old Bailey, where he said. h did official shorthand writing for 20

MANY ALIASES.

In the warrant, the Head-Const. added.

replied: "Well, my lerd, you may think that a colossal crime, but I look upon it as a mere trifle." AMRITZAR RECALLED

WALKING ON HANDS AND KNEEL

sble, and I call upon all Catholics in the parish against Great Britain occurs in Asia." At Convent of the Protect for novitiate at the Convent of the Protect for the parish against Great Britain occurs in Asia." At Convent of the Protect for the Protect According to our Athlone correspondent, his hands and knees, and walk up and the ex-convict was known under a different down the Square twice. A party of men Any amount to lend on Valuable Pro- name during a stay in Athlone, and was with fixed bayonets marched beside him.