CASTLEBERG GUARDIANS

MASTER'S SALARY INCREASED

Mr. Arthur M'Sorley, J.P. (chairman), presided at a meeting of Castleberg Board of Guardians held on Friday, the other members present being—Messrs. Joseph M'Garry, James Leitch, John Vernon, and R. A. Scott (clerk).

THE MASTER'S SALARY.
A notice of motion stood in the name of Mr. Robt. Mitchell to grant the Master an initial salary of £50, increasing by increments of £5 every five years, to a maximum of £80 a year, the scale to be applied retrospectively.

In the absence of Mr. Mitchell, the motion was moved by the Chairman, and seconded by Mr. Leitch.

When the Chairman declared the motion passed, Mr. M'Garry said he wished to dissent.

Mr. Leitch—You did not speak.
Mr. M'Garry—The Master got a percentage on the farm produce and discount for collecting insurance. None of you have said a word about that.

Chairman—All the other officials have got increases, and I believe that the Master is entitled as well as the rest. That is my opinion.

Mr. M'Garry—It is not my opinion, and it is not the opinion of the ratepayers. I don't see how the rates are going to be paid. Every time we come here we are granting increases. That is not fair to the ratepayers. We are sent here to represent them and not to be granting increases.

Mr. Leitch—You must pay your officials. Mr. M'Garry—I have nothing against the Master. I would say the same against any of the officials. We must act fairly to the ratepayers. I don't see what the rates are going to stop at.

Chairman—Let it go this time.
Mr. M'Garry—No, I dissent from it altogether.

The Chairman's proposition was passed, Mr. M'Garry dissenting.

STOCKTAKER.
Mr. Chas. Robb was appointed stock-taker for the six months at a remuneration of £2.

TENDERS.
The tender of Mr. H. Wilson, to supply landrods at 2s 6d each, and rough meat at 1s 6d per lb., was accepted. Only one tender was received for the supply of bread. C. Hamilton tendering to supply it at 4d. per lb., but the Guardians decided to purchase any bread required at current prices until the question of the subsidy for flour was finally settled.

CHAPLAIN'S SALARY.
The Clerk read a letter from Rev. James O'Connell, P.P., Urry, returning thanks to the Board on behalf of himself and the priests of the parish for the increase of salary which the Guardians had recently granted him for acting as chaplain in the Workhouse.

CARRIGANS TRESPASS CASE.

Newtownstewart monthly Court was held on Thursday, before Capt. Gosselin, R.M. (presiding), Major Owens, R.M., Messrs. W. C. Miller, and W. H. Todd.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.
Sergeant Walker summoned Peter Conway, barman, for having been guilty of disorderly conduct while drunk on the 16th July.

Complainant said that defendant had his coat off in Plumbridge street wanting to fight everybody. He nearly created a serious riot.

Defendant did not appear and he was fined 10s 6d with 4s 6d extra costs.

BREACH OF CONTRACT.
James Crawford, Strahuller, sued John M'Gill, Strawletterdallion, to recover £10 for breach of hiring contract.

Mr. A. C. Leitch appeared for Crawford, and M'Gill did not appear.

Crawford said that he engaged M'Gill from the 12th May to the 12th Nov. for £10 a week, £21 and M'Gill to do general farming work. On the 27th August, after breakfast, witness asked M'Gill to go for a load of hay, but he refused to do so, saying that he could be if he did. Witness afterwards asked him to prepare a bottom for a sack of hay and he also refused to do so. He then went away and he had not returned since. Witness had paid him £10 2s 4d as wages.

The magistrates granted a decree for £10 with 21 costs.

CARRIGANS TRESPASS CASE.
James Lennon, Carrigans, sued Thomas M'Farland, Carrigans, to recover 53s 6d damages to a hay crop caused by defendant's cattle.

Mr. R. H. Carson (Messrs. Dickie and Carson) appeared for complainant, and Mr. W. E. Orr for the defence.

Complainant gave evidence of finding seven head of cattle in the hay and said that the defendant's wife admitted that five of them belonged to her husband.

In reply to Mr. Orr, Lennon denied that he brought the case out of spite against M'Farland.

During the cross-examination Lennon became excited and shouted to Mr. Orr: "You should not come here to argue lies."

Chairman—You will have to conduct yourself and answer the questions.

Continuing, Lennon said that he obtained a decree for £126 against M'Farland at Omagh over an assault.

Mr. Orr—We have paid that.
Lennon—You did not pay enough.
Mr. Orr—And that is the reason you want to get more now.

Lennon—I had to lend him the money to buy his wife's wedding dress before he could marry her. (Laughter).

Mr. Orr said that Lennon's claim was for injury to the hay crops and it could not be sustained in that court. He would have to go to the Quarter Sessions and they would meet him there.

Capt. Gosselin agreed with the view, and said that the magistrates would give a decree for 2s 6d, with 15s extra costs to cover the actual trespass of defendant's cows on Lennon's land.

A PUBLICAN'S REVOLVER.
The King at the prosecution of D.I. Marshall summoned Robert Baxter, publican, Newtownstewart, for, as alleged, carrying firearms, a revolver, on the 27th July without having a permit as required under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

Mr. R. H. Carson, S.C.S., appeared for the prosecution, and defendant appeared in person.

Sergeant M'Brade said it appeared that two or three men were in defendant's public-house on the night in question about 11 or 12 o'clock, and there was some talk about firing. Baxter then sent upstairs for his revolver, which was brought down to him. The men saw him getting the revolver, and one of them took it from him.

Capt. Gosselin—By force?
Mr. Carson—So he alleges.
Continuing, Sergeant M'Brade said that the revolver was given back voluntarily to Baxter the following night. The matter was reported to witness in question, to the effect that he made a statement to him. On the first occasion Baxter had not the revolver in his possession but he had it on the second occasion, and witness asked him if he had a permit for it. He said he had not, and witness then seized the revolver, which he produced in court. One of the men referred to had been summoned to appear as a witness, but he was not present in the court.

Mr. Carson—I suppose he would not recognise the court. (Laughter).

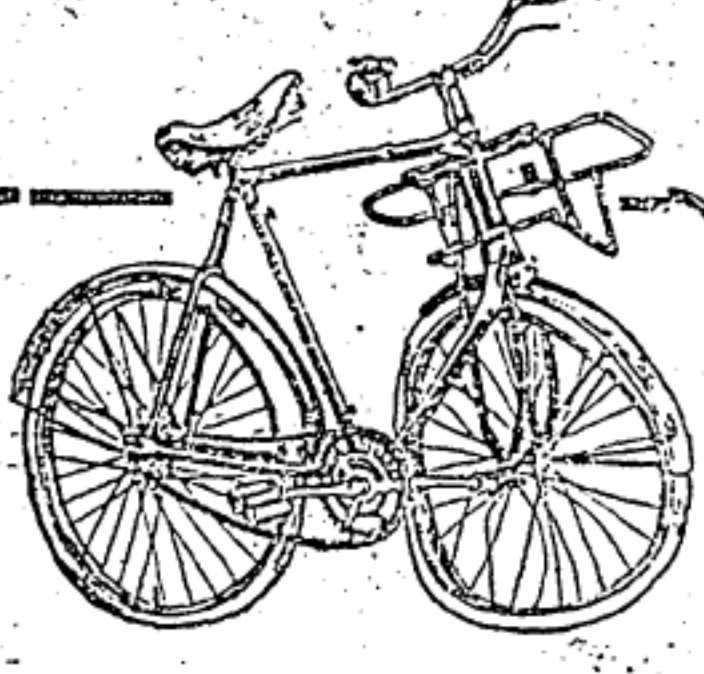

Baxter said that he did not know it was necessary to have a permit for a revolver. The revolver had been lying in the house for a good while.

Capt. Gosselin—You must have been living in Mars if you did not know that it was necessary to have a permit.

After consultation, Capt. Gosselin said revolvers were revolvers nowadays, and the defendant would be fined 23s and costs.

EX-SOLDIER CHARGED.
An ex-soldier named Charles Brogan, Lisnalin, was charged on remand with having, as alleged, fired at and wounded Morris, (Glen), (Sessagh), on the 9th August, with intent to do her grievous harm.

Head-Constable Lester appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. W. E. Orr for the defence.

ARRESTS ON DUBLIN MOUNTAINS.

YOUNG MAN KILLED.
A young man who was killed when 40 arrests were made on the Dublin mountains on Sunday was Mr. Sean Doyle, aged 19, son of Mr. P. S. Doyle, Emmet Rd., Inchicore. It is alleged that a number of men were surrounded while drilling and the shots were fired at two who tried to escape.

The Press Association says that all the prisoners will be tried, and that the leader is Capt. Ryan, who is described as a Company Commander of the I.R.A.

It is stated on most reliable authority that those who were arrested were not in possession of firearms and ammunition. The names of the men arrested are not known. They are refused to disclose them to the authorities and they are distinguished in the Bridewell by numbers.

TRANS-ATLANTIC SERVICE.

AMERICAN CELEBRITY.
The "Irish Independent" says—"It looks as if the owners of the new American trans-Atlantic liner, Panhandle State, are about to set at defiance the Admiralty order recently issued in regard to calls at ports in the Atlantic."

For should the Government persevere in enforcing its order, retaliatory measures may be adopted by the United States. Feelings sufficiently Anglophobic have already been aroused in the great republic by England's treatment of Ireland. If she intensifies any further the bitterness there a crisis may very easily be precipitated between the two countries.

that she and her two brothers, William and James, attacked Mrs. Brogan's house with stones on the morning in question, to the effect that they threatened to burn the house.

Mr. Orr—Did you say send out the old cripple, meaning the prisoner?—No.
Did you say the Germans could not finish him but we will?—No.

Has your family for some time been casting up to Brogan the fact that he was in the British army?—No.

How many brothers have you?—Five.
Did any of them join the army?—No.
You did not like the idea of him being in the British army?—No. (Laughter).

Continuing, the witness denied that Brogan fired the shot into the air. This was the first occasion on which Brogan had annoyed her. She denied that she was ever charged with causing malicious injury to a man called Hagan.

In reply to Head-Constable Lester, the witness said she went to Omagh and Dr. Lagan took a pellet out of one of her fingers.

James Morris, brother of the last witness, said that in the month of May, he was going past Brogan's house with his sister in the morning bringing home some cattle. Bella Brogan, defendant's mother, chased the cattle back along the road with a dog. Witness and his sister brought the cattle back again, Charles Brogan then came out of his own house with a gun and fired a couple of shots. Two of the shots struck his sister, and they both went home, leaving the cattle on the road.

Mr. Orr said he was going to submit that the shot was fired in defence of defendant himself, his mother and his brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Bella Brogan, mother of the prisoner, said on the morning of the occurrence, the boy, James Morris, threw a large stone at the door, and Mary Morris challenged her to fight. Wm. Morris was also there and he said that he could fight her son. She said she did not rear any fighting sons, and he replied, "What about the cripple the Germans were not able to finish?" Mary Morris said she would burn the house, and as witness was in fear, she called her son downstairs. He was in bed at the time, as he was up to a late hour the night before, and when he came down he took out the gun and fired a shot in the air. Witness did not see any cattle on the road at the time, and she did not believe that there were any cattle belonging to the Morris's in the townland at the time.

After consultation, the Chairman said that while they regretted that the girl had sustained a slight injury to her hand, they were of opinion that there was no case to go before a jury, and informations would be refused.

OMAGH GUARDIANS.

MATRON'S ILLNESS.

Mr. George Murnaghan, J.P. (chairman), presided at the weekly meeting of the Omagh Board of Guardians held on Saturday, the other members present being—Messrs. Stephen M'Garry, Patk. M'Loughlin, Patrick M'Hugh, Michael M'Alister, Bernard M'Alister, Solomon Morris, J. Mulholland, Owen M'Gusker, Michael Cunningham, R. J. Beattie, and P. Gormley, clerk.

SANCTIONED.
The Local Government Board wrote sanctioning the proposed increase of £5 per year to the midwives in the Union on the understanding that the existing war bonuses would cease.

TUBERCULAR PATIENTS.
Mr. M'Garry asked if there were any patients suffering from tuberculosis in the workhouse.

The Chairman said some time ago it was suggested to the County Council that they should utilise the portion of the workhouse occupied by the military for the treatment of advanced cases of tuberculosis, but at that time as the military had not surrendered the premises to the Guardians nothing was done in the matter. However now that the military had handed over the premises the matter could be brought up again. They had no place in the workhouse at present for the treatment of these cases.

Mr. M'Garry said it would be a great danger to the other patients to have tubercular patients in the workhouse.

TILANKS.
The Master reported that Mrs. Browne-Lecky had supplied a number of books for the use of the inmates.

The Board returned thanks to Mrs. Browne-Lecky for her kindness.

MATRON'S ILLNESS.
Miss Donnelly, matron, wrote stating that as she was in declining health she would be grateful if the Board allowed her two months' leave, the master's wife, Mrs. A. M'Loughlin, to discharge her duties in her absence. She pointed out that she would be unable to use the ration, and she asked the Board to allow her money in lieu of ration.

Mr. Murnaghan reported that Miss Donnelly was in a poor state of health, and she would be unable to continue her duties as she would not be able to resume duty for some considerable time.

The Chairman said they were all very sorry to hear of Miss Donnelly's illness, because she was a most excellent and efficient official, and they hoped that the rest she was taking would restore her to health.

The Board unanimously granted the application, and appointed the master's wife to do duty during the matron's absence.

HOLIDAYS.
Nurse M. M'Cartin, fever hospital, wrote applying for the annual holidays, and her application was granted, the other nurses to do her duty during her absence.

OMAGH RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

CARRICKMORE PUMP.
Mr. George Murnaghan, J.P. (chairman), presided at the weekly meeting of the Omagh Rural Council held on Saturday.

CARRICKMORE PUMP.
An account for £11 10s 8d was received from Mr. J. J. Mawhinney for repairs to the Carrickmore pump.

Mrs. Owens, R.O., said that she had not given any instructions for the repair of the pump.

The Clerk said he believed that it was Dr. Hunter who employed Mr. Mawhinney.

Chairman—We did not direct him to employ anybody. Write to Mr. Mawhinney and tell him we did not employ him. We don't say whether the bill is right or wrong, but this was rather unusual. He could not be employed without our directions.

The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to.

The Irish National Insurance Society wrote asking for a share of the Council's business, and the clerk was directed to bring the letter before the Council when the question of renewing the insurance came before them.

STRABANE TENANTS AND RENTS.

PROTEST AGAINST LANDLORDS' DEMANDS.

A mass public meeting of Strabane tenants was held in the Grain Market, Strabane, on Thursday evening to protest against the demands of certain house landlords for increased rent. On the motion of Mr. John M'Devitt, seconded by Mr. Wm. Patton, Mr. John Toorish, P.L.G., was unanimously moved to the chair.

Mr. Toorish thanked the meeting for the great honour they had conferred upon him in asking him to preside at that assembly of the tenants of this town held to protest against the demands of certain landlords for an increased rent.

The duties of a chairman on occasions such as that were very light, and he felt he would be trespassing on their patience if he stood between them and the great treat that was in store for them in listening to gentlemen who at great personal inconvenience had come from a distance to address them on the "crux" that was likely to arise if these landlords persisted in their demands. Therefore before introducing these gentlemen he would remind them that had always existed between them and their tenantry, and by way of advice he appealed to them to pause before putting in force those exorbitant demands, and for them to remember that when taxation was at the minimum, hence they and not the tenants derived the benefit, and if any unpleasantness arose by way of retaliation, on their shoulders might it rest, for the tenants were determined to resist oppression no matter from what source it emanated. (Applause). There was a loud outburst of cheering when the speaker advised his hearers to pay no increased rent, and join their association.

Mr. M'Garry, of the Motormen's Union, said that the Strabane motormen had just secured victory they had decided to allow their meeting that night to be called by the Tenants' Association, and they could not celebrate their victory in a better manner than launching this campaign (cheers). Going through Strabane he was amused to see some of the houses that landlords had the audacity to charge rent

For, never mind asking increased rent (laughter). They were not fit for human beings to live in. There were tenants in the town who had spent a lifetime in their houses and had bought their over and over again in the amount of rent they had paid, yet the landlords had not the slightest sense of decency, and wanted to still further prostrate on their poor tenants. They would have no profiting in rent or in any other thing (cheers).

He proposed the following resolution:—"That this meeting of the townspeople of Strabane protests against the arbitrary treatment by property owners of their tenants in demanding increased rents for houses, many of which are in an improper state of repair, and others which are unfit for human habitation. We call upon all tenants to resist this unhuman and unjust demand by banding themselves together in the Tenants' Defence League, and we further pledge ourselves not to enter or occupy a house from which a tenant has been ruthlessly evicted." (Applause).

Mr. Patrick M'Hugh, of Omagh, who seconded the resolution, condemned the housing and the landlords' attempt to extract increased rents, and said that the tenants had been ruthlessly evicted. Mr. Samuel McGuinness, U.D.C., Strabane, supporting the resolution, asked all the tenants to join the Town Tenants' Defence League to fight the unreasonable demands of the landlords, and if they victory was assuredly theirs (cheers). On the Urban Council board he had been doing his best to get the Council to improve the housing conditions in Strabane, but he had had very little assistance there. There were houses in this town that were a disgrace, and a scandal to modern civilization.

The resolution on being put to the meeting was carried unanimously.

On the motion of Mr. M'Guinness, seconded by Mr. John M'Devitt, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman and the visitors who suitably replied.
