ON LETTER PRIVATE WIRE

HONE: No. 104

Flect St., E.C., Saturday Morning. al resolution in contition Bill was passed if the House of Comhout a division, after which developed no evernment to the ders for more generous working of the meatmosphere of absolute discussion, because ient was professedly ancing of two Parliathe duality of the os a transparent pre-standing certainty of is that only one Parr-the Farliament for and by the Carsonites. realising that the n is deemed to fiasco s, as its principal erday, intreducing an Report stage for the of three-quarters of Colony. ution. ike the prospect of nment?" an Englishd me at the House evening. "Why." he men will no longer of thing." But will s the question with bat in a very thin only section of the mustered in full lster Unionist Party, was in the Chamber. Evans, in his speech ces of the Bill, made ce Home Rule Act of ion Ireland would be ial contribution c Ue had, a few senclined to give the two of Customs and Excise. on Press had a couple hadowed that control onceded. In this contware of the breach of cernment are commitome Kule Act provides evenue exceeded for rs the expenditure on sion of the financial should take place with a proper contribution towards Imperial exmore than three years to been realised. The nbers who were in close inisters regarding the tet now virtually re-

ided that this revision

granting of fiscal au-

now abundantly payo Government refuses of Customs and Excise. Board. m, who accepted the of the Bill, although ho rial contribution too ris Ulster friends, who the finances of the it deal of exception to Board. He conveyed rust in the Joint Extherefore, amounts to aess people of Belfast ding the Board, while entee leader, who has ut no foothold in Irerd bis confidence. in vesterday's debato Walter Guinness. r attack on the finances It in a powerfully conthe financial necessilates Col. Guinness. great firm which has mous, and with which imself intimately cone largest payers of ind, invested his speech weight. Mr. Lloyd close attention to Col. and afterwards in my ted Col. Guinness on of his speech, adding, not agree with it. to find Earl Winterpeer just back from io, during the passage Act through Parlially of the Carsonites. his attitude towards 's, yesterday support-Col. Guinness's attito the Bill and engagabout it with Ulster nilates Food. of Cork, I learn from now actually assimilaforcibly administered deses were vomited by stomach is retaining food and beef juice, as stimulate the heart's also is being forcibly ounteract the developd it is effective. was unconscious all He did not recognise continually at the bedng in a rambling way days. He was calmer . From a source conord Mayor's family it e soon as he recovers vill refuse to accept se to issue a denial of r's statement that food en by the Lord Mayor. food was put into his s unconscious, and was automatic action.

unable to see yesterday, al at the G.P.O. whom meet to discuss with of reversing the order of the parcel post bethis country because to was absent owing ndsay has arranged to ant official on the sub-

MEN PRESENT. AT BALLYDAVID,

he statement that one itered the house of the wid, the night the two ad, was wearing police nspector W. II. Langpoliceman was present t or part in this cold-R GARMENTS-AN

MY HINT.

ractical way to econogive 10 p.c. (2s. in the ose who purchase Cosrocks before 11 o'clock z a 10 guinea garment r honours conferred by the

Quartermaster Scrat. [Remindady. 22nd Casualty Clear-caby. 22nd Casualty Clear-caby. 22nd Casualty Clear-caty Nallonward. Limerical erritorial Force Nursing Fer-Kathleen O'Connell. Queen Mathleen Connell. Queen Mathleen Connell. Queen

DAYLIGHT AMBUSH IN COUNTY CORK.

SOLDIERS

SIX MEN WOUNDED

ATTACK ON POLICE . WESTMEATH.

CASUALTIES REPORTED

despatches from Bandon Cork, was ambushed at 9.30 a.m. yesterday, with the result that one officer and one soldier were killed, and another soldier subsequently died.

and Pte. Siluce. The ambush took place at Annabeg, between escorting car was caught under heavy fire which stopped the engine. This Hospital car was rushed by the attackers, and all the arms and ammunition seized. The leading car, in accordance with instackers, said to number about 100, are of departing. Small pools of blood here and there tored through the country." ported that a military forry writed helds adjoining it is believed that one or more later arrived in Cork contained a civi- helds adjoining it is believed that one or more later arrived in Cork contained a civi- of the attackers were wounded. lian-an elderly man-bare-headed and n attack on a police party between Moate the captured forry was set on fire before the constables were wounded, is also re-

BATTLE DESCRIBED. ATTACKED FROM THREE SIDES.

Wiring from Cork, a special correspondent of the "Irish Independent known and was responsible for the attack. aging disabling and stopping this car. and Lieut. Dickson and Pte. Reid were! killed. The leading lorry, which was l curring the despatches, continued on its i journey towards Cork, but a corporal jumped out and began firing! to protect its retreat.

Four of the attackers came along the side | dier died of wounds later. Three other rank were | tinue to hold it of the road, firing at him, and he was brought down with a bullet in the knee-The four men then rejoined their com-The remaining occupants of the disabled lour were picked off one by one until only a joung private, aged about 17, was left.

CIVILIAN BAYONET CHARGE. nearest police barracks, got reinforcements that the military fired in the direction was seen To fall. from which the first shots came, but that none of the attackers were seen except the into Cork died this afternoon.

occupation of the Irish Republican Army. He could see other men moving about ontside, and he heard sounds as of spades ione this evening, and proceeded in the the robbit being used in the direction of direction from which the report emanated.

It would seem that a mine was laid in the centre of the road, but nothing further as heard until approaching ten o'clock, when there were some shots. Two lorries and along from the direction of Bandon, MAN SERIOUSLY WOUNDED was held up. The party of men, it was stated, numbered about 50. Some time after 11'

All the coldiers in it seemed to be intovered with bloud. The man seated in front beside the quiet.

WO fore this another motor lorry arrived in the city containing military officers with drawn revolvers and armed soldiers. In the lorry also was a civilian-an elderly man, bareheaded, and hand-

About fifteen or twenty minutes after the arrival of the injured soldiers six lorries, with armed military and police, left ing the Parliamentary debates on "re-Cork and proceeded in the Bandon direc- prisals," is reported as saying to American tion, from which the others had come. An armoured car and an ambulance also went in the same direction. HEAVY VOLLEYS.

officer accompanied the military party, and directing them. The attempt of the the majority of whom belonged to the English Government's spokesmen to pre-Essex Regt. stationed at Bandon, and a tend that these atrocities are 'reprisals few of whom were belonging to the A.S.C. can deceive no one who has been in Ireby the attackers, who used rifles and revolvers, and who are said to have numbered nearly a hundred men. In a short space of time several of the soldiers were hit, and the officer in charge so seriously wounded that he killed, so that the remainder were compelled to surrender. Some of the attackers then came from behind the fences and re-Those killed were Lieut. Dickson and moved the rifles and other equipment beanother soldier whose name has drew across country, and scattered in var-

not been ascertained. In addition, attended to the wounded to the best of six other ranks were wounded, in- their ability, and sent for assistance to Innoshannon and Ballinhassig, and the | brought to Ballinhassig, where their tion.

and Kilbeggan, in which three of the attackers left. THE OFFICIAL VERSION The official report issued from G.H.Q.

Parkgate, Dublin, states:-- ambush a Crossley car conveying important despatches from Bandon to Cork. escorted by a second car. The escorting car, which was about 200 yards behind must-lt is believed that the fact that came under a heavy fire from both side the cars were carrying despatches became of the road, and also from the yard of a form. Shots hit the engine of the car The first lorry got through the ambuscade, and stopped it. The officer and men The second one was fired on from three the car returned the fire until all but one directions-namely, from both sides of the were wounded. Thirty or forty of the rad and along a slanting line in front, men in ambush, who were all in civilian le the first fusillade a bullet struck the clothes, but were carrying rifles and bavonets, rushed the car and seized all the arms and ammunition. They gave no assistance to the wounded, but, on the contrary, searched the pockets of both lead and wounded for loot The leading car, in accordance with previou instructions, proceeded on its way. One officer and one other rank were killed, and a second sol

POLICEMAN KILLED

AN AMBUSH IN OFFALY

An official report received at Dublin termination. bronets, charged the lorry, knocked over ambushed at Parkwood, King's Co., yestervent back to the scene of the ambush, and stable being slightly wounded. Fire was breught the wounded to Cork. It is stated returned, and one of the attacking party THE SPIRIT OF IRELAND.

Yesterday a report reached Athlone, writes our correspondent, that a police Bansha, was standing beside the bodies of her One of the wounded soldiers brought party were ambushed between Moate and two dead hove, dragged from their beds and Kilbeggan near Horseleap, and it was stated As a result of later inquiries it was as- that 3 of the police were wounded. entained that about 6.30 a.m. Mr. A. II. driver of a motor-car who arrived in Ath-Roberts, of Tourcen, whose house is situ- lone stated that he passed a military lorry the scene of the occurrence, was on the road. The lorry was surrounded by soldiers with fixed bayonets and he noticed on opening the door was confronted by a one policeman lying across the lorry as i man who told him that his house was in badly wounded or dead, and others were old. That is the spirit of Ireland, and the murlying in the body of the larry. Two lorries of police and one lorry military, with an armoured car, left Ath- or dying for Ireland know that God is in Hi

FIRING IN ATHLONE.

after the first had passed, the mine in Last night about 9 o'clock a number of the road, which had been covered with lorries, with uniformed men, drove into leaves, exploded, and the second larry Athlone from Moate Rd. Passing through Church St., they discharged several rifle The explosion caused a large hole in the shots. The street was fairly througed at the time, as people were leaving the Franciscan Church, where the annual Retreat octock a military lorry came at high speed is being given. Mr. Michael Burke was declaration that he is himself the supreme wounded in the head by a rifle bullet, and authority. I think you may take it, his condition is said to be critical. in the were lying prostrate wounded. The lorries went swiftly through well known that Lord French has been in the car, one of them being supported the town, causing the people to flee paule more than uncomfortable for some time, another soldier, whose hands were stricken, and went into the military bar- and the blunt announcement of the change racks. About 11 o'clock there were some which has taken place since he was sent of reports of rifle fire, but later the town was to Ireland as the Grand Panjandrum will referring to incidents of July 27, is de- Neither then nor subsequently were the men that had his coat thrown open, and his Mr. Burke was a member of the U.D.C., the certainly have results." thest bare, and seemed dazed. Shortly be- R.D.C., and Guardians up to the last election.

THE LORD MAYOR'S DELIRIUM.

The Lord Mayor of Cork continued in a

4d intervals and was rapidly sinking.

relatives are at his bedside, day and

and closed his lips firmly, and this per- SYSTEM OF TERRORISM.

the Lord Mayor of Cork was in a head fell back from the exhaustion of the blate bordering on complete un- effort the spoon was then inserted in his of the "Daily News" in Ireland, writing master of the same brigade, and believed in his of the "Daily News" in Ireland, writing master of the same brigade, and believed to be concerned in the assassination of consciousness during the greater " part of yesterday, and is unable to recognise his relatives. had several attacks of delirium, delirium with brief fits of violence, but, on that even his own inquiries in and the prison officials adminislt is glorious, glorious.'

tered liquid nourishment several SERIOUS DEVELOPMENT. symptoms of dilation of the heart, and When this had passed he slept a little. At 10 o'clock last hight be seemed in a state of torpor, and was still, apparently, un-He is unable to recognise his rela- conscious of his surroundings or of the presence of his devoted wife, relatives, and friends. Father Dominie, who, yesterday, again, did not administer Holy Communion to the heroic sufferer on account of his dewith Lather Dominic practically in last night with Mr. Sean MacSwiney. lirious condition, remained in the prison It is stated that the senior prison doctor has bicaing of the limbs and face continued. been raising objections to the presence of the Lord Mayor's wife, sisters, and brothers in the patient's ward, which have naturally caused much them." li asleep for about an hour at 4.45 have resigned themselves to the feeling that they but relation to be rallying to his are attending at his death-bed. but relapsed again between 7 and THE STRUGGLE IN CORK dis sister, Miss A. MacSwiney, was What was the passed a good night on Thursday. The ten Lunger-strikers in Cork Prison what was the year, where he was, bere they all doing there, was the There was no appreciable change in their Republic established and recognised? condition last night. Burke, Kenny Dono. out almost immediately he went off Joseph Murphs, who all slong has been the wo van, and the two Crowleys, especially Peter. delirium again, multering: "We seemed somewhat brighter and his pulse was marching during the night. They stronger.

IN IRELAND.

REPLY TO STATEMENTS OF

MINISTERS.

"The English Parliament, by refusing ! an inquiry into the atrocities its Government's forces are committing in Ireland, Another version says a naval petty convicts that Government of instigating Crossley, conveying important Fire was opened from behind the fences land. The atrocities now being perpetrated in Ireland are part of a calculated

Heavy volleys were poured into them plan made by the English Ministry some mouths ago in the vain hope of breaking the spirit and will of the Irish nation. "The constitutional expression of the will of the Irish nation registered at the General Election of 1918 was met by an arbitrary decree from the English Government declaring the duly elected representatives of Ireland an illegal body, and banning the national and political organisations which three-fourths of the people of IRISH VOTE A CRIME. "A policy of repression based on nocturnal raids, arrests, and imprisonments was cluding Corpl. Woodford, Pte. Ballinhassig police barrack, only a few pursued towards the people's representa-Warding, a sergeant of the A.S.C., miles from the scene of the ambush. A tives, and the people themselves. The reand, it is believed, Corpl. Deakyser force of police were immediately des- straint with which that policy was endured patched to the scene, and news of the did not avail to abate its rigours, and as occurrence was telephoned to the military time passed repression became more brutal at Cork Barracks. The wounded were and to it was added calculated provocawounds were temporarily dressed, and "The Press that exposed and condemned they were then removed to Cork Military the evil policy was suppressed or threatened with suppression. Public meeting was thronged, and when the Lord Mayor What of the Night?" A few years ago, he The whole district round the scene of the was interdicted, and all the organic means ambush was searched by parties of military, an by which a nation expresses itself was can be learned, no arrests were made. At the sought to be stifled. Political spies, whose remarkable scene cusued. The vast audi- degenerates. To-day a new life pulsated in scene of the ambush several empty cartridge cases business it was to denounce men for their ence rose and cheered, and hats were the heart of Ireland. She knew that her structions," the official report says, and a few "live" bullets were picked up, having opinions, and agents provocateurs, whose waved. Some mounted chairs to catch a "proceeded on its way." Some of the evidently been dropped by the raiders in the hurry work was to instigate outrage, were scatsupposed to have been hit, and it is re- on the road show where the lorsies came to halt. Consequences of the effort to treat the ingly advanced on the platform, when the chairman the intropid Dr. Fogarty, whose lawfully registered vote of the people as a cheering was renewed and continued for name was a household word in Erin. He crimo and their representatives as crimi-A Press Association message from Bandon says nals, proceeds Mr. Griffith, had resulted in the following-which surpassed any. O.P., Archbishop of Adelaide, was also pre- great Bishop O'Dwyer, he stood four square thing alleged against the Germans in Belgium, viz.:-"(1) Assassination of Irish citizens creameries and harvests. "(3) Nocturnal raids, arrests and "An attempt was made this morning to prisonments. (4) Sacking of villages and towns: '(5) Looting of private property. (6) Murderous assaults. "(7) Torturing of political prisoners. "(8) Stoppage of inquests on murdered

"(2) The burning of Irish factories.

"(9) Expulsion of workmen from their north of Ireland, payment of them as police, and incitement of them to outrages upon Catholic and Protestant Nationalists.' BLOCKADE THREAT. "English policy in Ireland has been for CAMPAIGN OF CALUMNY.

statesmen, so-called, have held and constated in an interview with the Press that from these reports, all coming from the antagonists of evil, but also protagonists there were too many young men in Ireland, same source, that Catholic Ireland had of good. and that it was the policy of his Govern- become a den of irreligious anarchists, SPIRITUAL TRIUMPH. ment to drive them out of Ireland. Al-|out-throats, and rogues. You have only though England in the past 70 years has to read the speeches in the House of Comdriven over 4.000,000 people out of Ireland mons within the last few days. You have the vote of thanks, said the whole course she still lusts for more expatriation and ex- all heard of Danter Then about 40 of the attacking party, Castle last night says, states the P.A., that "Americans, send your Pressmen here of a certain place: 'All you that enter and with military service rifles and fixed 19 police, of whom 10 were recruits, were to turn on the light. Under such a smoke here, abandon hope.' If he were alive now land in the future should be to preach a screen of calumny as that set up by the he could write across the door of the House the young soldier, and took away the equip- day, the driver of one of the cars being Parliament, she plans to murder the leaders | ter here, abandon fruth.'

> "Its leaders she may murder-the Irish nation she can never conquer. While Greenwood was foully libelling the Irish nation, Mrs. O'Dwyer, of murdered before her eyes. To those consoling "' My two boys who worked our farm are killed without reason or cause. They were shot down practically before my eyes. But let it he so. We will bear it all for Ireland." "That is the spirit of an Irish mother 70 years derous policy of England can never prevail against

> Our country is in agony, but our country has been redeemed, and those who are suffering Heaven, and that the reign of law based upon he consent of the governed which has been estabished in Ireland will never be uprooted by the efforts of the brutal militarism which is to day

"SUPREME AUTHORITY" AT THE CASTLE.

THE REPRISALS CAMPAIGN

"Sir Hamar Greenwood has brought things to a crisis at Dublin Castle by his writes the "Globe" "Diarist." "that The Chief Secretary's explanation of the ardson, R.A.F., against whom the charges!" committed by Sinn Feiners disguised rish reprisals, that "many of them are lare brought, has been assassinated the stolen uniforms of soldiers and police. is described by the "Westminster Gazette" as the most futile yet offered and as making "the Government and the STATE were marching as well, but we heat them. country look ridiculous." "There is, says the journal, " no nessible doubt what The prison authorities still continue to lever about the reality of the reprisals. ladminister food. At about 6.30 a.m. the Every newspaper office has streams of innurse held a spoon of meat juice to his formation flowing in from witnesses whose month. He muttered "No; take it away." good faith is absolutely unimpeachable.

Mr. Hugh Martin, special correspondent Brigade, I.R.A., and Patk, Harte Quarterin reference to Sir H. Greenwood's state-1 Sergt. Mulhern, R.I.C., in the Catholic opinion." Telegraphing last night our correspondment that he had "yet to find any authendent says that the Lord Mayor was in a ticated case of members of the Auxiliary chapel at Bandon on July 26. state bordering on complete unconscious. Division of the R.I.C. being accused of mitted; as leader in the attack on Mount ness all day. He had occasional attacks of anything but the highest conduct." says the whole, he was quieter than on the pre- Calway " leave no shadow of doubt that outrages in the W. Riding of Cork. The members of the Auxiliary Division are engaged there in the methodical application of a system of terrorism in which that flogging of men plays an important part. "Sir Hamar says that he is convinced! from the evidence that everyone of the side the house were two women, one persons who suffered from the reprisals at l Bulletin' as Miss Lordan. and near Tubbercurry had connived at. possibly helped, and certainly condoned, HIT IN THE MOUTH. the murder of D.I. Brady. The property "At the time she gave a false name, in the district was raided, gardens being infantry with steel belinets and bayonets of 1,400 farmers was burnt down, while the women and children of Tubbercurry, and declared the bicycle was not her prowho all suffered acutely, can hardly be perty, though she subsequently made an charged with complicity in the crime, attempt to ride away on it. Thos. Hales held up and ordered back to their homes. Many other points made by the Chief Sec- and Patk. Harte were found behind the > last a profound ignorance, whether real and addresses. They were placed under or assumed, of the facts as they are known escort while the officer went in to search to those whose business it is to record the house. EXCESSES OF AUTHORITY. Discussing the result of the reprisals debate in the House of Commons, the "Manchester Guardian" observes:--"Hard indeed will it be for us in future to condemn in other countries the excesses of authority and to pose as the champions f civil freedom and personal rights. The authors of every violence, of every pogroun will turn on us and ask. Did you not also commit violence by the arm of authority? of his clothing. Ammunition and down-Had not you also, when it suited you, your

REPRESSION POLICY THE REGIME OF COERCION COAL POSITION STILL

CONSOLATION AND HOPE

STATEMENT.

Mr. Griffith, M.P., interviewed regard- REPLY TO THE CAMPAIGN OF CALUMNY,

> 'They may make a cemetery of Ireland, but the dead have a knack of rising again," said the longed applause. enthusiasm by a great audience perishing. A Catholic nation knows how in the Mansion House last to suffer, to endure and sacrifice every-most inhuman kind such as were ne occasion of the gathering was an address to a mass meeting of men through the heart of democracy." by the Rev. T. M. Barrett, O.P., was visibly crumbling.

The Cound Room of the Mansion House O.P., took as his subject, "Watchman!

SCENE OF ENTHUSIASM

inflicted on a people, but she had great the malice. The brutality was more than consolation and great sources of hope (ap- human, and the primary inspiration came sterling Catholic heart, and particularly in The Church lived. It created order in the the Catholic heart of the manhood of Ire- religious, the economic, and the political land, and especially of the manhood of sphere by means of great revealed prin-"Your Grace from Australia." he said. turning to the Most Rev. Dr. Spence. " can assure you that our young mon sometimes put us venerable Catholics to shame "(10) Arming of the Orange rabble in the by the depth and tenderness of their unaffected and unobtrusive devotion. We are the one nation of whom it is true to say fithat the young men not only rival almost surpass their sisters in the depth of their tender devotion to Christ. centuries based on the idea that Ireland's "I say this to vindicate the truth impoverishment was essential to England's | Speeches are being made, reports are being | prosperity. It is a false idea, but English circulated all over the Continent defaming our country and defaming our people. One A year ago the English Lord Lieutenant would imagine from these speeches and and said they were bound not morely to be

"That great poet wrote across the doors Greenwoods and Carsons in the English of Commons of England: All you that en-

BUT CASTLE ADMITS MEN

GOT SEVERE BLOWS.

"Irish Bulletin" "alleging condition.

Bandon with Patk, Harte, whose treat-

from military in Bundon Barracks.

the arrests were made, and that the hands, but not the feet, of both men

the fact that the allegation, though "A PURE FABRICATION."

no unnecessary force was employed.

is not to be confused with the officers reterred to as Capt. A. and I.t. B., against whom the al-

After intimating that a full inquiry has

Pleasant Barracks and in other murderous officer in charge of the military detachment which made the arrests found lady's bicycle with a small handbag.

the handbag was a despatch of the LR.A.

addressed to the G.O.C., No. 1 Batt. In-them being identified now by the 'Irish

"During his absence Hales, after an attempt to escape, was insulting to the sentry

guarding him, and called him 'an English

Irish Volunteers, etc., were found.

hard The sentry hit him in the mouth.

" Hales was now searched; he was asked legations were principally directed.]

A FULL INQUIRY."

given as follows:-

BISHOP FOGARTY'S special purpose, and the very malign purpose, of suffocating a small nation by the poison gas of calumny. But it will be all changed to-morrow when they want our help; then they will pat us on the back, and they will tell us that we are a nation of heroes, and the children of a fighting

> AN UNCONQUERABLE NATION. A nation with a thoroughly Catholic heart could not be conquered; it might be overpowered, but it cannot be conquered (applause).

"They may make a cemetery of Ireland, but the dead have a knack of rising again," he declared amid loud and pro-Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, who | "Pagan peoples have no ideas except was greeted with extraordinary those of pleasure and wealth, and they are thing for the ideals of Christ and justice and fair play. From my reading of history though Ireland was now enduring I have gathered one idea, and it is the great sufferings and outrages of a that it is not the classes that make nation; it is the masses that make a nation. Classes have their own place in society, bu seldom inflicted on a people, she it is not through the classes of any nation had great consolation and sources it is not through any of the classes of any nation that the traditional virtues of jus tice and fair play and truth are handed down from generation to generation, but through the broad heart of mankind

Democracy might go wrong sometimes, who declared that the terrible but it always swung back again to what tyranny under which they lived was honest and what was fair, for the love of these things was inherent in the heart of mankind (applause).

NEW IRISH SPIRIT.

FATHER BARRETT'S ADDRESS. In his address, the Rev. T. M. Barrett, introduced the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty a said, the Irish were a race of anglicised much as the Gospel was superior to the glimpse of Dr. Fogarty. The Bishop smil- Koran. He was fortunate in having as qualled not before purple tyrant or paltry several minutes. Most Rev. Dr. Spence, Castle-hack. Inheriting the mantle of the Dr. Fogarty expressed his thanks for the tyranny under which they lived was visibly honour that had been bestowed on him. crumbling. The shameful propaganda of Ireland, he said, had great sufferings just deliberate fatschood originated in him who now; great sufferings and notrages of a was a liar from the beginning and the most inhuman kind such as were seldom father of lies. It was Satan who inspired plause). Both these were found in the from hell. The Caesars had passed away.

> IRELAND AND THE CHURCH. Ireland took a great part in the work of the Church. There were 100 mitred prelates to-day who were Irish by birth or blood. They ruled from Molbourne to Los Angeles, from Sacramento to Dublin. reference to Archbishop Mannix evoked thunderous applause.) They could not separate that night without registering a protest against the hellish persecution which Ireland was subjected. (References to Clare, Cork, and Tipperary evoked

Mr. J. J. Hughes (Irish Labour Party) proposed a vote of thanks to the lecturer. Mr. Sean MacCaoilte, T.C., in seconding of Irish history proved the triumph of the spiritual over the material, but the great endeavour of the Catholic Church in Irc great social programme. The vote of thanks was passed with acclamation By the courtesy of the Harmonic String Band. ment. The first lorry proceeded to the killed by a rifle bullet, and another con- of the Irish Nation and choke it into in- "All these reports are circulated for the a charming programme of music was rendered.

behind him, but his feet were not tied.

nor was any unnecessary force employed. Harte's hands were tied with a niece of strap, there being no handcuffs available. of their efforts for a settlement of the railway services. "In the meantime the woman named Miss Lordan had taken her departure, and ter should not be dealt with by sections, as a considerable number of persons were and the committee expressed the desire; gathering and the military force was small that no action would be taken by separate closed on Monday and Tuesday in future. This the prisoners were put into a lorry with bodies. the ammunition, documents, etc., dis-Dublin Castle yesterday issued a long covered, and taken to Bandon. The priroply to the charges reproduced in the soners were neither tied together nor were they in any way ill-treated, despite the insolence they displayed. methods amounting to torture were "On arrival at Bandon military bar-employed by military officers against racks the prisoners' hands were untied. the soldiers, who were at the time infur- wired to the members. iated by the cowardly murders of Sergt. ment is stated to have upset his mental Mulhern, R.I.C., and Cpl. Maddock, 1st Essex Regt. They received a few severe The Castle statement admits that Hales blows in the face and body, but the men were immediately ordered to desist, and was struck in the mouth by a sentry, did so. For their own safety the priwhom he is alleged to have insulted; soners were placed in a barrack-room and that both prisoners "received a under a special guard."

few severe blows on the face and body" | The Castle document proceeds that the men were subsequently interrogated, charged, and duly cautioned, and alleges. is further admitted that Hales was par- that, being asked to explain a document tially stripped at the farmhouse where found on him, Hales made certain admissions. Harte at first refused to answer. but later admitted be took his orders from Hales. According to the statement, hel were tied, but, the statement declares, also declared: "I would shoot any policeman or anyone else if I was ordered to do Comment is made on "the significance it by the frish Republic."

layed until one of the officers, Lt. Rich- ill-treated in any way. The only blows they reswollen, so they were removed to the military hospital detention ward." In order to prevent their association with the hunger-strike in the 'Patk, Harte and Thos. Hales were ar- by court martial. "Charges made against the officer carrying out at Lauragh, Bandon, on July 27. Thos, the arrest follow," it is added, "upon a long l ntimidation, and so forth. The issue of the present fabrication has probably been influenced by the hone that the officer in question might be to be concerned in the assassination of removed under the pressure of misinformed public

> COUNTRYSIDE HELD UP. MANY ARRESTS NEAR ATHLONE.

riels, near Athlone, vesterday,

Sentries were placed on all roads in the priests ted the procession, chanting the vicinity, and passing vehicles and pedes-foffice for the Dead. trians were searched. People returning from a funeral were held up at Clombrush Cross Roads and searched. Every house dug up and stacks of hay prodded with formed across the street. At the entrance bayonets. Young men employed on the railway from the Coosan district were ! Edwd. Farrell, all of Coosan, were arrested. the cemetery. The first 3 are over 60 years of age.

Hales and Harte attempting to hide papers fitted as a clubroom, has been burned to the who died a martyr's death " "In memory in a hedge. The hedge was searched, and ground, with a large quantity of hay and oats a number of documents dealing with the stored in the upper portion of the building. The empty dwellinghouse at Ballyglass belonging to Mr. J. Scanlon was also burned.

to an outhouse, and made to take off some Greek King Still Very, Ill. The condition of the King of Greece remain months were found on his person. To en- unsatisfactory. His temperature shows disquiet sure his safe custody his hands were tied leg fluctuations.-Reuter.

CRITICAL.

EFFORTS FOR PEACE | Was defeat conference. BY TRADES.

THE NEGOTIATIONS.

RAILWAY STRIKE MAY BE DEFERRED.

SITUATION IN IRELAND pretty well supplied with equal, but their

While there has been no definite supplied. The committee appeals to all vernment circles is that a de- fires should be abandoned falte opportunity for negotiaserious development arises from making regulations to deal with restricted and Transport Union.

'The Prime Minister, at a breakfast | a day or two, but, on the other the coal strike, and possible railway hand, it might develop into one of trouble. An "Irish Independent" reprethe greatest struggles the country need for anxiety for the present. had experienced. This is still the RESTRICTED TRAIN SERVICES. position."

railwaymen and miners to-day it the Trades Union Congress on Wednesday. Some of the most prominent Labour columns. leaders," says the "Daily Chronicle," "are firmly convinced that if a settle-

Congress will decide on a national sumed, and at a conference of

MINERS EXECUTIVE

strike."

TO MEET THE RAILWAYMEN Co. are making a considerable reduction Mr. Frank Hodges, miners' secretary, day services, when the trains will run stated to the Press Association that it had every hour instead of every half-hour. The been decided to summon the Miners' Exe- restricted services are announced in our cutive to London. They will meet to-day to consider the invitation of the N.U.R | THE CANAL SERVICES. to meet them in a joint conference. . The calling of the meeting of the Miners' no shortage anticipated. The manager of Executive is regarded as the first real one of the largest distributing companies move, apart from the conversations between the Government and the miners, that has been made to ease the deadlock, and, steamers, which also ran on oil fuel. This as a result of it, there is a strong probability that negotiations with the Go-vernmen and the owners will be resumed. The action of the railwaymen in asking the miners' committee to meet them is taken to indicate the desire of the railway- HUGE LOSS IN WAGES AND COAL men to discuss the situation and find out t whether there is any possibility of peace parleys being resumed before their ultimatum becomes operative. Replying to Mr. J. M. Hogge in the House of Commons, Mr. B. Law said he could add nothing to the Premier's statement. The position is a very grave one IMPORTANT MOVE.

The Parliamentary Committee of the Trade Unions Congress met yesterday to discuss the situation. At its close Mr. C. W. Bowerman, M.P., said it had been decided to hold a special conference of the whose boats are mainly run by oil engines. Executive or representatives of the Execu- The canals are presently working to their tive of the affiliated unions on Wed. next utmost canacity, and for this reason they to consider how best to give such relief will not be able to help in relieving the to the miners as will ensure the success congestion following the curtailment of the dispute. It was considered that the mat-

THE RAILWAYMEN. Mr. J. H. Thomas authorised the statement that he is personally opposed to the persuaded not to persist in the contemplated susaction taken by the Railwaymen's Execu- and Ireland. l tive, and adds that, in the event of de-Thos. Hales," after his arrest near They were, however, recognised by some of velopments, fresh instructions would be "The Globe's" Parliamentary correspon- ment in Dublin paddocks about 1,500 cattle and dent states that Mr. J. H. Thomas, speak. 5.000 sheep. ing in the Lobby of the House of Commons, have been released, and the shipyards can now con was understood to say that, in the event of for several weeks on the plates and castings on a rail strike, he would not lead it. The "Evening Standard" says that, though the railwaymen may come out. or large numbers of them, there is a considerable amount of feeling against intervention. In Scotland the railway companies have been assured that the men do

The "Dally Chronicle" understands that Mr. in stacking on tenders this wood fuel can be out Thomas's efforts to stave off a sympathetic strike (and used) in three feet lengths. BIG MILITARY DISPLAY.

FUNERAL OF THE GALWAY VICTIN The funeral of Mr. Ml. Walsh, U.C., the inquiry was adjourned. It is stated that story of torture applied to extract evidence is a which took place yesterday after Requiem Mass at Galway Cathedral, was limited to watch, which he usually wore, was missing conveyed to Victoria barracks, Cork. Visited by the clergy and 50 persons, including relaan officer on July 28, they said they had no tives. Rev. J. O'Kelly, P.P., was colemouth was sore and Harte's face appeared slightly brant at the Mass, and 25 priests took part

Military and police were stationed at civil tail, they were detained in hospital till trick the Cathedral and along the streets, while mounted Dragoons, with drawn sabres, Chairman, U.D.C., was arrested at his resilined the route on either side to the New dence, Ard Beag, Meath Rda, on a charge

Joosan, Cornamaddy, and Ballykieran dis- " present," whilst the multitude lining the form who arrived next morning. footpaths bared their heads. Surpliced! When the procession had passed along to Prospect hill, at the top of Eyre Sq., the infantry saddenly swung round and TUBBERCURRY MAN'S ESCAPE. Many other points made by the Chief Bees and Pats. Harto were round in the retary could be similarly met if space per- farmhouse. On being arrested and asked Curley, Coosan; Ml. Hughes, Arch, fary panie, women and children running to the farmhouse of the best gave folso names Curley, Coosan; Ml. Hughes, Arch, fary panie, women and children running to the control of the control o barred further progress on the part of the Coosan; Wm. Farrell. Wolfe Tone Tco.; in all directions. Another party of mili-Thos. Reilly, Wm. Reilly, Jas. Frenan, and tary and police followed the procession to Amongst the wreaths sont were one from i the Galway Cumann na mBan, "In loving dered : from the Dockers' Union, from little orphans," and a wreath from his widow with Gaelic inscriptions.

horrible murder. Sympathy with tamily.

C.C. Aran Isles, docoasad's cousin, tele-

God will help them." Rev. M. Murphy, ners, were arrested on Wednesday meralas, but I urging the need for conserving coal supplies. Industries all over Ireland are all stocks must be economically used. People who are able to stock coal are also well

The Executive of the A.S.L.E. and F. have do

cided to defer a decision on the question of symps

THE IRISH SITUATION.

NEED FOR ECONOMY-POSITION OF

FOOD SUPPLIES.

met yesterday, and issued a statement

The All-Ireland Coal Supplies Committee

thetic action until Monday.

development in the coal strike householders to use the strictest economy and not use coal for any purpose other situation, the opinion in Go-than cooking. Drawingroom and bedroom The stocks held by Dublin merchants are tion will emerge before any not very large, but none will be given to the decisions of the railwaymen deliveries of coal. If the strike continues for a week it will be necessary to get local bodies throughout the country to form local committees in each district. The statement concludes:-"Ireland is as wel yesterday with prominent Welsh placed in regard to stocks of coal as it Methodists, stated," says the Poli- could be at any time to meet a situation such as has arisen." tical Correspondent of the "Daily Such as has arisen.

The Master Bakers' Association and the Chronicle," "that the coal struggle | Irish Flour Millers' Association met at might be peacefully ended within the offices of the Food Control Committee to discuss the food situation in relation to Travellers in Ireland will be well advised Informal conversations between Minis- to make themselves acquainted with the re-

sentative was informed that there was no

ters and miners' leaders were re- stricted train services. The G.N.R. Co. announce that a number of trains on their system will be discontinued on Monday next. These trains are will be suggested that railwaymen mainly between Drogheda and Dublin on should postpone action until after | the main line, and on the several branches All Sunday trains are off. Details of the discontinued trains and of the new train services are given in our advortising

The Midland Railway (Northern Counties Committee) announce that a number f important trains will be cancelled from ment of the minors' dispute is not ar- Monday next on their main line, as well rived at by that date the Trades Union as on its various branches. Belfast and Co. Down Railway Co. are taking off 3 of the trains from Belfast to Bangor, with the corresponding return trains, as well as some of the local trains

between Belfast and Holywood, Knock,

Dundonald and Comber. The Dublin and Lucan Electric Railway in their services, particularly on the Sun-

So far as oil fuel is concerned, there is informed an "Irish Independent" representative that all their supplies were obtained direct from America in special tank

FIFTH DAY OF STRIKE

Loss in coal output 3,750,000 tons. Miners on strike 1,200,000 Non-miners thrown idle 200.000 Miners' loss in wages £4.500.000 Should the railwaymen and transsport workers strike in sympathy it will involve:--Railwaymen Transport workers Making the total unemployed over 2,000,000

s very important to canal companies,

Owing to the coal atrike Inchicors Works will be means placing about 600 men on two thirds time while the strike continues. Over 100 mechanics and labourers have been paid off The "Manchester Guardian's" London correspon dent understands that the Government have been pension of the parcels post between Great Britain thre stock experts are gravely restricted by the shipping curtailment. The Fs. Kerry (8. and 1. Co sheep for Birkenhead, while the Silloth boat took away 350 beasts. There are still awaiting ship-I. Pullar Phibbs, North Strand, Dublin, writes ---The curtailment of railway traffic, both passenger and goods, affects us all, and is in our opinion mite unnecessary. The railway companies should ' Wooding' stations in place of coaling stations ire employment to the hundreds of local sawnills graphed: "Joy, not tears. He died for water 2s. 4d. was in the pocket, but a gold

MILITARY INQ TRY.

COUNCILLORS ARRESTED. MORE RAIDS BY THE MILITARY. Bray.-Mr. Jos. Lynch, Co.C., and

A military inquiry into the death of Mr. Walsh was held at Renmore on Thursday. Evidence of identification and that of a doctor was taken, and Hales was Commandant of the 3rd W. Cork series of attempts to remove him by assassination. Cometery. An armoured car followed the of buying seditions literature. Military funeral, -Whilst Mass was being celebrated arrived from Dublin at 4.30 a.m., accompassing motorists were held up and the panied by an armoured car. The search. drivers' papers and permits examined which was conducted with courtesy, lasted All work in the city was suspended 3 hours, and some Republican flars and until 2 p.m., and thousands lined the literature were seized. Mrs. Lynch, who streets. The procession emerged from the is a member of Rathdown Guardians, states Cathedral with Mr. Walsh's 7 little that when her husband and she were reboys following the coffin. The pathetic turning home the previous night they met spectacle drew tears from many. Mili- 2 men coming out of the front garden of tary outside the Cathedral presented their residence. One of the en asked farms, and as the hearse passed through where some people lived. This man, -see Large parties of uniformed men visited the froms and cavalry all came to the is convinced, was one of the men in uni-- Warrenpoint-Mr. Patk. McGivern, U.C., and his brother Thomas were arrested at their residence. Newry St., by military. Thomas, it is stated, was arrested for alleged raiding, and Patrick because in their bedroom, it is said, documents relating to the L.R.A. were found. Carrick-on-Shannon-Mr. J. Yynch, R.O., was arrested at Strokestown fair. Ballymote, -Messrs. M'Getrick, M'Dermott, and Foley, members of the Creamery staff, were arrested. When military and police called at the house of Mr. T. Kane. D.C., Tubbercurry, to arrest him he belted through the fields. He escaped uninjured On Thurs, night, Mrs. Lydon states, her house was visited in search of another man, memory of Michael, who was foully mur- Not finding him at home the visitors wrecked some of the furniture, including a The sentry further reported having seen Mr. Moore, the lower portion of which was recently Mr. and Mrs. Mahon. "To dearest Michael, statue of the Blessed Virgin and a bioyole." Co. Kildare.-A number of houses at of their murdered lather, from his seven Robertstown were raided, and Mr. Jos. Cusack, Co.C., was arrested. Kilmallock.-Mr. M'Guire, Tobernea, was Most Rev. Dr. O'Den telegraphed from arrested by failitary and taken to Kilmals. Dubling to Mgr. Considing: "Shocked at lock, but was subsequently released.

Massilate-Jas. Davern and bis employe, Jac. Can-

Car does 54 Miles ne Gallon of AIIL

for Autumn and Winter

Velours, Irish Fleece. ds, etc., suitable for l Skirts, and we give cipal ranges

mole, brick and nigger. im for winter coats, in a - 16/11 sign, dark shades, very - 18/11 lanket Cloth, all wool. brown, brick, mixtures. - 17/11 ight shades, 56 inches

56 ins., per yd. 13/11 ind purple, also brown. per yard 14/11 lours, suitable for inex-6/11 per yard round with wide white e makes and thoroughly - 14/11 hes, per yard

ble for sports wear and per yd. 15/11 to 19/6

St., Dublin

r light autumn costumes

s, 54 ins., per yd, 13/6

ossible the shades and ble range being sent

Clery's Dublin."

DUPE.

power for all purposes.

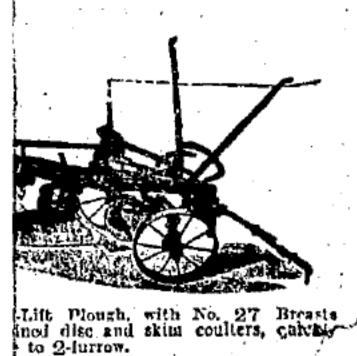

LIN. Wires: "Business, Dublin

LOUGHS

sts for general purpose and lea-

IARKET.

" Ploughs, write:--

Y, BIRDS, FERRETS, ETC. by one user of Karswood Meal packets, 24d., 74d., 1/3. You 119 Thomas St. Blanchardstown. OR fowls said 290 eggs in one Karswood Poultry Spice, packets, id Karswood Meal (Sussex Ground). Leddy and Co., 73 Thomas St.

P.P. reference required. Box 8356. Y-Respectable Workman, R.C., with l good prospects, seeks a good-took-20 to 25, view to marriage: ED Lady, having business in Dub-capital, wishes the acquaintance of apublican would suit. Box 8243. recovered; Super Tax, Excess Profits begunts. J. T. Wallace, Expert 10 iblin. Phone 931.

Mulinbar, Caven, communicate with Rent for Houses, when you can be through met Box $253.

-Young Lady, R.C., with means, resnondence with young Man, post