"Nationals" Great Fight Against

B. Rangers — Bpts. Univ. Col. Spit.
B. Donnelly, secretary, explained the situation and before a good attendance, the meeting of the B. Rangers and the Students produced one of the most interesting and successful of the year. The fair ground was patchy, and rough in parts, but the students were very much interested in the University College were not expected in the past. The B. Rangers were very much interested in the Rangers were lucky to leave off with a winner of a goodling game by the margin of a single point.

the field and no ground being gained, when a high kick and follow up would have paid better. A big home rush was pluckily stopped by Donovan, who got hurt in the process, and just before the close Cuthbert got in a huge touch near to near the College corner flag, and then Atkins heeled right in front of goal, but kicked wide, and a game full of incident and excitement ended in favour of Beccitve by a single point.

A GREAT FULL BACK.
For the winners, Isallah played a sterling game at back, and he will go far. Charlie Oulhauss was at the top of his form at centre, and made many openings, while Atkins ran well and kicked neatly. Gomcoo and Clarke worked hard, and on the forwards W. Collopy, Leo Egan, and Dunne were best. Donovan was sound at full for the students, Russell, Conaghan, and O'Sullivan were the main players for the teachers.

Monkstown gave a grand display at out-haul, and O'Connor was also good, while Courtney, "Smith," Blathens, and Moore were the best of a genuine, hard-trying pack.

MONKSTOWN FINISH WELL.

Belvedere Forwards Well Beaten for Possession.

Monkstown ... 11pts. Old Belvedere nil.

At Beech Hill, yesterday, Monkstown gained a fairly easy victory over the home team by a goal and two points (11-0) for the first time since the worthy of their victory, for they were a better side in every department than the homesteaders whose efforts lacked cohesion. For one in a way the Helvedere forwards were badly beaten for possession in the scrums, and in the loose, too, they failed to show the understanding which was a feature of the visiting pack's play.

THE PLAY.

Playing with the mill in their rear, Monkstown at once attacked and quickly scored. Their backs got going at the home 25, and when Steel was shoved into touch he scored a moment later near the corner, following another and a last by the visitors. Pickeman made a good effort to convert but was just wide. For a while Belvedere showed signs of improving, and both ends were visited in turn, but eventually Monkstown settled down to a determined attack and again settled down to a

Robinson accepting a return transfer from C. McCallin, and scoring behind the posts, Pickeman easily converted. Monkstown had all the better of the remainder of the period, but failed to increase their lead.

BELVEDERE DO BETTER.

On resuming Belvedere had a fairly long spell on the offensive, but their forwards did not seem to work went together, and their backs when passing were apt to get crowded in on the touch line. Eventually McConnell kicked well down, and Monkstown commenced a hot attack. After Thompson, C. W. McCairn, and Robinson had all gone near, Pickeman slipped round the blind side of a two yards' scrum, and scored a clever try, which, however, was unconverted. A fine dribble by Lyons set the homesters again attacking, but once more they were driven back, and Monkstown then kept their on the defensive until the arrival of "no side." COMMENTS. Monkstown showed good form, and was lucky in possessing a fine lot of young forwards. They were well served by McConnell who, as usual, kicked splendidly. Pickettman, however, was the best of the winning backs. He shone alike in defence and attack, and had a useful partner in C. McCallin of the "thorn." Robinson was the best of the M'Galdin the better wing. J. K. S. Thompson led the pack in fine style, and was well assisted by Walmsley, West, and Dale. D. Lyons was the best of the home backs, and did splendid work for his side. Flanagan did well in the centre, and Kelly was perhaps the better wing. Forward—Crean, D. O'Brien, Judd, and Riall were the pick.

R.S. and P.U. 1. 9 pts. Wesley II. Nil.
At Donnybrook yesterday Wesley II., who put up a stiff fight against the visitors, Railway Union, were early prominent, and during the first five minutes of the match Dockery put over for the first try, and was quickly followed by Barron, who got over after a very clever run, having received Wesley, but although several sturdy attempts were made to break through Railway line, these failed. During the second half Railway still had the play and following a throw out of touch in Wesley end Dockery again scored.

Wesley shortly after were awarded a free, which, however, failed to lessen the lead, and they retired at full-time without having crossed their opponents' line.
