IRISH SUFFRAGE DIRECTORY.

IRISH SUFFRAGE SOCIETY. 27 Donegall Place, Belfast.

IRISH WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE SOCIETY.
27 Donegall Place, Belfast.

On Saturday, the 17th inst., two open-air meetings were held in Ballymena and Ballymoney. In the former a large crowd gathered on the Peck and we had a most successful meeting. At present we find that "Millitary" is running in full speed, that the system of "gagging" the press and the method of "crawling" the "Evening Telegraph," the "Irishtelegraph," and the "Morning Star," is working with the utmost success, and that the women's suffrage question was now an embarrassment to them in their efforts to get the present Home Rule scheme passed into law. Great interest was shown in the speeches and numerous intelligent questions were asked.

The "Freeeman's Journal," in a knowing report of the meeting, states that after three days of the "journal of the association," by which it resembles the Irish Citizen, were said. As a matter of fact, the entire speech of the day was not long, and many more could have been said had they been available.

The following is a list of the contributions received to date for the Special Legal Defence Fund: The I.W.P.L. desires to express its gratitude to those who so generously responded to the appeal for funds to defray the expenses incurred in the defence of the Irish Militants. This fund will shortly be closed. At the total sum of over £150, short of the expenses incurred, those who intend to contribute are requested to do so without delay.

IRISH WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE FRANCHISE.
Ancient Concert Buildings, Dublin.

The usual weekly meeting was held on Monday evening, 19th inst., at the Parlour of the Loyalist Club, Grafton Street, Dublin. On Friday, 22nd August, a meeting will be held in the Temperance Institute, Islandmagee.